WHAT IS OHSA?

Show locally . . . achieve nationally. That's the motto of the Open Horse Show Association. OHSA's mission is to provide national recognition and quality awards to those that show at local open shows. Since OHSA is a national organization members compete with others from New York and Texas and California and Alberta, and all over the US and Canada, yet they won't have to leave their local areas to do so.

WHO CAN COMPETE FOR OHSA POINTS?

All registered and grade horses, ponies, drafts, mules, and donkeys are eligible to compete for points with OHSA.There is a place for everyone, from western pleasure, to barrel racing, to hunters, to gaited performance. At OHSA we're very inclusive!

Disciplines include In Hand, Western, WJ Western, Hunt Seat, WT Hunt Seat, Saddle Seat, Gaited, Driving, Ranch Horse, Dressage, Walk Only, Exceptional Rider, and Timed Events.
