

2024 CLINICAL CONSULTATION GROUP

The Clinical Consultation Group is a diverse group for both provisionally and fully licensed therapists, clinical social workers, mental health professionals, and addiction specialist. This group offers education, support, and resources to practitioner.

1/27/24

Private Practice; How to establish one.

2/24/24

Eating Disorders in the African American Community..

3/23/24

Decolonization of Therapy: What does that look like?

4/27/24

End of life decisions making: Why Advance Care Directives help.

5/25/24

How ethics will save your life/career.

6/22/24

Suicidal clients and crisis intervention modalities.

7/27/24

Looking at APS/CPS from a cultural perspective.

8/24/24

Toxic communication; we've all experienced it. Communication is a learned skill.

9/28/24

Change makers: Are we really? Conversations about advocacy and what it looks like.

10/26/24

Appropriate documentation and what it looks like.

11/23/24

Trauma therapy; Whats the best modality to use when treating our patients.

If you are interested in participating in the group please send us and email for more information

INFO@YOURTHERAPEUTICSOLUTIONS.COM
WWW.YOURTHERAPEUTICSOLUTIONS.COM