Established in 2017, Redline Mechanical is a licensed woman-owned Commercial and Residential Plumbing company located in Black Diamond and happily serves the Greater Puget Sound area. Redline is also a proud member of the UA Local 32: Plumbers and Pipefitters union, ensuring that their Plumbers receive top quality industry-leading training and education.

President of Redline, Nicole McMahan, with her husband Ryan, are the driving force that sets Redline apart as they uphold an atmosphere that is both positive and celebrates connections with customers and other team members. Under their leadership, each Plumber that works for them receives endless guidance and support to put their tradesman skills to work.

When asked, “What makes Redline Mechanical unique compared to other plumbing companies in the Puget Sound region?” Nicole said, “I think it is our unique focus on providing top-quality work, our commitment to industry-leading education, and our goal to always put the customer first. We have the best group of guys that truly make Redline Mechanical so special!”
