Design for the Home and Garden

Lots 1 - 359

We are delighted to bring to you the next Design for the Home and Garden auction. The last sale was led by a magnificent $200,000 Tiffany drop head dragonfly lamp. This, the Holiday edition, is no less exciting with 500 years of art, furniture, design and decorations from around the globe, woven together like a world tapestry. We offer a wide array of fine jewelry and watches from makers including Bulgari, Cartier, Rolex and Van Cleef & Arpels so you can sparkle and shine throughout the season. An Edwardian diamond, ruby, gold and platinum stomacher which converts to a brooch and a pendant (lot 30) makes a polished look even more special. Not to leave out the gents, the Rolex Steve McQueen Explorer II (lot 62) is a bold stainless steel wrist statement.

This auction features property from numerous collections and estates from around the country including striking Art Deco silver and enamel pieces by Puiforcat and Paul Emile Brandt from a Private South Hampton, NY Collection (lots 13-17). A magnificent Italian polychrome theater figure (lot 75) is a highlight of the sale and of the Property from a Private Ojai Collection. It is a piece the drama and scale of which is rarely found. The David and Barbara Hart collection of World Art (lots 143-223) is so vast and varied there will be something to captivate everyone. From the suspended Bustamante parrot figure (Lot 171) to a pair of lovely Chinese Ming period jarlettes (lot 150). The Fima Ruchman Collection features an eclectic array of objects, styles and periods including a work from the Circle of Luca Giordano depicting a Calvary engagement (lot 279). A Regency gonalco alves writing table in the manner of George Bullock from a Pacific Northwest Estate (lot 310) is exotic and elegant. The Estate of Vladimir Magdalena Zacharias is notable for the early works of art including a Continental bronze mortar, 16th/17th century, decorated with crowned lion masks (lot 355).

Also in the auction is a wonderful array of paintings, prints and sculpture including an original pencil drawing of a cat by Léonard Tsuguharu Foujita (lot 134), an oil on board painting of a Swiss Valley by Albert Bierstadt (lot 354), works by Cipriano Cei (lot 298), Joan Miró (lot 132), a patinated bronze figure of a woman by Santiago Rodriguez Bonome (lot 328) among many others.

We hope you enjoy browsing the auction even more than we enjoyed assembling it.
