

Read Psalm 19:1-14

God does not want to stay hidden from us. He wants us to know him. We know him through his creation (vv. 1–6) and also through his law, the Torah, God’s revelation to Moses now found in the first five books of the Bible.

David exults in the preciousness of this Word. Is this how you feel about the revelation God has given of himself in his Word? How do you approach Scripture? Do you see it as fuel to revive your soul (v. 7)—“rejoicing the heart” (v. 8)? Do you desire the Word of God more than a ten million dollar inheritance and all that it could purchase (v. 10)?

And yet the Word of God not only reveals who God is; it also reveals who we are, in all our sin and need. The lofty call of Scripture is worthy of all pursuit, yet frustratingly beyond our reach in light of our weakness and inadequacy. David knows this—thus his concluding remarks in the psalm, beginning with “Who can discern his errors?” (v. 12). He closes by praying for his words and thoughts to be acceptable in the sight of God. And he knows that by grace they will be, for in the final words of the psalm he calls God “my redeemer” (v. 14). But how, in light of his sin? Only, ultimately, through the redeeming work of God’s only Son, Jesus Christ—who, though perfectly “acceptable” (v. 14) was punished as one unacceptable so that we, unacceptable through sin, might be accepted eternally into God’s presence. (Dane Ortland, In the Lord I Take Refuge)

Check Out Our New Website: mgfellowship.org

Theology 101 – From the Mind to the Heart: Due to the pastor’s missions’ trip to Argentina, our next Theology 101 class will be Saturday, November 15th, at 9:00 a.m...

Wednesday Bible Study: Tonight, we will look at The Benefits and Fruit of Weakness. See at 6:30 p.m.

Women’s Fellowship: Saturday, October 18th, our women will be meeting together to encourage and pray for one another. Our first meeting will be at the home of Silvia Cripchuck, 4133 Shoalcreek Dr. in Corona, at 10:00 am.

Sunday’s Service: Esther: Living as Exiles (The Providence of God?) <https://youtu.be/gH95QSZfunw>

This Sunday’s Message: Esther: Living in Exiles (For a Time Such As This)

Great Quote: “The presence of hope in the invincible sovereignty of God drives out fear.” (John Piper)

Prayer Needs:

- Please pray for Jude who is currently in Juvenile Detention. Pray that he would surrender his life to Christ.
- Please pray for David who is struggling under overwhelming circumstances.
- Please pray for Brian who is under severe spiritual attack.
- Please continue to pray for Mary, the mother of one of our members, who has decided to be baptized and commit her life to the Lord.

- Please continue to pray for Pastor Mike's upcoming trip to Argentina. We will be re-opening a church that has been closed since covid.
- Please continue to pray for Miguel. He is currently staying at the Ayres Hotel and is asking for wisdom and guidance for him and his 3 children. His desire is to serve the Lord and provide for his family.

If you have any prayer needs (or praise reports), please let me know by email or text: Pastor Mike, 909-229-1888 or yea4god@gmail.com

Church Mailing Address: 3123 Harrison Street, Riverside, 92503

Church Meeting Place: 2260 Griffin Way, Corona 92879 (At the Ayres Hotel)

Prayer: 9:00 a.m.

Service Time: 10:00 a.m.

For His Glory!

Pastor Mike