Sharing the Gospel With Children

Annunciation of the Lord - Luke 1:26-38

God's people kept falling into sin. They needed help. Then one day the angel told Mary that with God's help, she would have a baby - God's Son! One day baby Jesus would grow up to be the Savior that God's people needed. Help was on the way!

Prayer

God, thanks for sending Jesus into the world in such a special way.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of the angel talking to Mary.

Mission for the Week

Jesus grew up to be the Savior. What will you do to help other people when you grow up?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question:

Our Catholic grade school is doing a penance service this Lent. Do young children really need to go to Confession? How much sin can they really have?

Answer:

Ask any mom about her children, and see how many would say she has a brood of perfect angels! Parents know that kids do things that are wrong? and they often know they're doing it! Even toddlers have a sense of right and wrong. The Church recognizes that their minds and consciences are not yet fully developed, however, and typically waits until age seven to offer the sacrament of Confession. Around that age and beyond, most young people, when asked, can easily explain why something is wrong.

Confession for children is an excellent way to help them reflect on their actions and accept responsibility for their behavior. It helps them to grow in their understanding of sin and how it affects others. This helps them to form their consciences and make better choices in the future. Most importantly, they learn the value of forgiveness, both given and received. Rather than singling out what's wrong, Confession offers hope and a new start! Children can grow in understanding God's unconditional love and develop a sense of inner dignity that transcends their failings. Not bad for five minutes and an "Our Father" or two!

STEWARDSHIP: TIME, TALENT, TREASURE

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. Funds from this collection provide food to the hungry, support displaced refugees, and bring Christ's love and mercy to all people here and abroad. Next week, please give generously to the collection, and help Jesus in disguise. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

Your blessings received from God and shared for the support of your parish and missions is greatly appreciated!
