VOCATION REFLECTION – Third Sunday of Easter

Those who love me will be true to my word.

Three times Jesus asked Simon Peter “do you love me? Feed my lambs. Tend my sheep. Feed my sheep.” Can you Feed the Lambs and Tend the Sheep as a priest or religious? If you believe you can, call Fr. Michael Casey, Director of Vocations, Pastoral Center, 860-761-7456, email vocations@aohct.org or visit the web at www.hartfordpriest.com.

POPE FRANCIS PRAYER INTENTION FOR MAY 2019

Evangelization: The Church in Africa, a Seed of Unity

That the Church in Africa, through the commitment of its members, may be the seed of unity among her peoples and a sign of hope for this continent.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - 3rd Sunday of Easter

I am struck by how Jesus addresses the disciples in the 21st chapter of John. They have been fishing all night, and when the dawn comes, Jesus asks, “Children, have you caught anything to eat?” They hadn’t caught a thing, so he tells them what to do to finally fill their nets. These children thought they knew best, but they couldn’t get the job done until they listened to Jesus. Like a child who needs a parent, these early followers of Jesus were learning that real maturity of faith requires trusting in and listening to the Teacher.

The stewardship way of life demands of us a certain maturity of discipleship. Just as a child is not yet ready to be a parent, an immature disciple may not yet be ready to sacrifice regardless of the cost or understand the true value of his generosity. So every day, we are challenged and called to respond, sometimes even with little cost to ourselves. But each step, no matter how small, brings with it growth. We are growing not only in maturity, but in the ability to trust in God and how to listen for the call as well.

How mature are you in your faith? How much trust do you have in Jesus Christ? How often do you pause to listen to the instructions of your Teacher? The night is now over, and the dawn is upon you. Reflect on the visible fruit of your stewardship, and then listen for the words of Jesus.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Sharing the Gospel with Children

After Jesus rose from the dead, he must have looked very different. Jesus helped his apostles catch a lot of fish, just as he had done before. Jesus invited his friends to eat with him, and he still broke his bread to share it in the same way he always had. The disciples still recognized Jesus by the things he did.

Prayer

Dear God, help me to always recognize Jesus.

Mission for the Week

Invite a friend over to eat dinner with your family, so you can share food just like Jesus did.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Jesus cooking fish for his friends.
