CATHOLIC CHURCH ANNULMENTS

Many Catholics have asked the following questions about the Church's position on divorce, annulments, and marriage:

"Can a divorced person receive Holy Communion?"

"Can a divorced person marry in the Catholic Church?"

"Why might a non-Catholic consider or need an annulment?"

"Does a divorced person need an annulment when the marriage was performed only by a Justice of the Peace?"

Often these questions and others have been met with misleading, misguided, and sometimes wrong responses. Perhaps you, a family member, or a friend needs sound, clear information. If so, please contact the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Hartford at 860-541-6491 or e-mail at Tribunal@aohct.org. You can also visit our website at <https://archdioceseofhartford.org/metropolitan-marriage-tribunal/>.

Workshops and informational sessions about annulments are now being offered. The current schedule is as follows:

12/4 - St Teresa of Calcutta Parish, Manchester 6:30 pm

12/5 - St Peter Claver Parish, West Hartford 7:00 pm

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGÉLIO

32º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En este domingo, la Iglesia comienza a enfocarse en el final de los tiempos y en la segunda venida de Cristo. Las lecturas aseguran que la esperanza debe estar en la vida, que es Cristo. La muerte es inevitable; todos pasaremos por ella. El trauma de perder a un ser querido es palpable. El dolor nos hace sentir la presencia del ser amado más fuertemente. Esa sensación de presencia se siente en lo profundo del corazón, no tan solo del ser amado, sino de Jesús mismo que es la resurrección y la vida. La resurrección no es mera fantasía, es por seguro una divina presencia.

El Evangelio nos enseña que existe la vida después de la muerte. Jesús dijo a los saduceos: "Él no es Dios de muertos, sino de vivos, y todos viven por él." (Lucas 20:38). Ahora, ¿Qué se piensa de la muerte? ¿Qué crees tú sobre la muerte en las circunstancias que vive la sociedad? El Papa Francisco nos ayuda con la siguiente reflexión:

Así es la esperanza cristiana: tener la certeza que yo estoy en camino hacia algo que es, no que yo quiero que sea. Esta es la esperanza cristiana. La esperanza cristiana es la espera de algo que ya ha sido cumplido y que realmente se realizara para cada uno de nosotros. También nuestra resurrección y la de los seres queridos difuntos, por tanto, no es algo que podrá suceder o no, sino no es una realidad cierta, en cuanto está enraizada en el evento de la resurrección de Cristo. Esperar por tanto significa aprender a vivir en la espera.

Aprender a vivir en la espera y encontrar la vida.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus ...” In this Sunday’s Gospel, the Sadducees avoid their real question. Is there a resurrection from the dead or not? Rather than ask this question point blank, the Sadducees try to prove their point through a roundabout, unrealistic scenario. Jesus cuts straight to the question behind the question, citing Scripture passages relating to the resurrection.

The Sadducees are trying to trick Jesus. While we may not intend to stump God, our doubts and questions may have more in common with the Sadducees than we care to admit. Doubts are part and parcel of life in a fallen world. Still, there are different ways we can word our doubts to ourselves, God, and others. When we’re struggling, truly struggling, about some article of faith, do we admit it? Or do we cloak it with other, obtuse questions to hide the nature of our concern?

Have you considered leaving the Church over the hypocrisy of some of her members and leaders? Perhaps the real question is: “How can a place blessed by God and instituted by Christ have this evil in it? Can I reconcile with the concept that an institution has an admixture of good and bad? What do I expect from others, from myself? What responsibility do I have to try and remedy evil in an institution I’m part of?” Perhaps you’ve wondered about the nature of romantic love, and if God is love, does He really care so much about the details of this particular scenario? Perhaps the real question is: “Can my mind wrap around the concept of a God whose law seems — on the surface, in this situation — to make people unhappy? What is the relationship between the moral law and human flourishing?” These aren’t easy questions, but they are more honest ones. This week, don’t be afraid of your deeper questions! Bring them to God, to someone you trust, and to yourself.

Prayer is the support that brings to fruition the seed of the vocation within the men and women who offer their lives to serve Our Lord. It is through the grace of daily prayer that you will partake in the work of building the culture of vocations in the Archdiocese of Hartford. So why not join us today?
