But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" — Mt 14:30-31

VOCATION REFLECTION

Do not be afraid; In fear, Peter called out "Lord, save me," and Jesus immediately rescued him. But when St. Peter kept his eyes fixed on Christ, he walked on water!

Imagine the amazing things we can do when we keep our eyes fixed on Christ! Have faith and trust the Lord's call. Consider being a priest, or religious brother or sister.

Call Fr. Jeffrey Gubbiotti, Director of Vocations, Archdiocesan Center at St. Thomas Seminary, Tel. 860-242-5573, e-mail: vocations@aohct.org or visit the web at www.hartfordpriest.com.

Sharing the Gospel with Children

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus went up the mountain to pray. You went with him. You got high above everything. Tents and people looked like little dots. You then realize that you are not as big as you thought you were. When you go to Jesus for help when you are afraid, God is good. His strength makes you appear bigger and stronger than you have ever been before. With God's strength and power, you can say, "NO," to evil ways.

Prayer

Jesus, you are the Son of God.

Something to Draw

Draw Peter walking on water, sinking with fear, then being saved by Jesus.

May God continue to bless and honor their commitment to each other and grant them many more years of happiness together.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The church has always held to the belief that Mary was assumed, body and soul, into a heavenly state, even though the belief was not declared as dogmatic until 1950. The early church had a robust tradition of revering relics from the saints of the day, and their complete lack of relics from the Mother of Jesus was seen as evidence of this Marian belief. The celebration of the event as a feast dates back to the fourth century in the East and the seventh century in the West.

Since Mary was untouched by the stain of sin, she was unable to experience the "wages of sin," which is death. But her Assumption also says something about humanity as well. Sin only has power over us if we allow it. Mary was freed from this power in her Immaculate Conception, and when she responded "yes" to God. We were freed from that power when Jesus died and rose, conquering death. Now, we must respond "yes" to claim the victory that was already won for us. On this feast, we should not only celebrate the great works God has done for us through Our Lady, but also celebrate the truth that we have the opportunity to one day spend eternity with her and her Son, Jesus.

The second collection at the 10:30am Mass in the Shrine of St. Anne is the monthly offering.
