Whenever we interact with our priests, do we see them as human and frail like the rest of humanity? Or on the other hand, do we see them as supermen, able to withstand all the stresses and strains of being human?

I hope you see your priest as very human. Quite possibly, even more human than most of us. Why? Because they not only have their own struggles being human, but they accompany us in our humanness too.

Therefore, this Priesthood Sunday, turn the tables. Attempt to be the listener to the human side of your priest. Do not automatically tell him your troubles; begin by asking him what is going on in his life. Thank him warmly for giving up so much to spend his life in service to others. Try it. You might be surprised to find out your priest is just like you!

The Sanctuary candle burns this week to the Glory of God and in memory of Francisco Robalino

Joyfully we welcome into our parish family through the Sacrament of Baptism...

Nadgelys Michelle Olivares

May the Lord continue guide and shower you with many blessings!

We extend our sincere sympathies and prayers to the families in the passing on of...

Lucille Descoteaux, Joseph D'Amico, Dr. Lenore Gerardi and Vito DiGregorio

Eternal rest, grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween has its origins in the ancient pagan Celtic and Roman fall festivals which commemorated the new year and the passing of the dead. Pope Boniface VI set November 1 as All Saint's Day, known as All Hallowsmas, from Middle English Alholowmesse. When November 2 was made All Souls Day 200 years later, the three days' celebration was called Hallowmas. The customs of Halloween, costumes, food and parties evolved over time, some rooted in ancient rites, others in remembrance of those who had died. These pagan feasts were Christianized by new meanings, although today it remains largely a secular holiday. ~ Rev. James Gaffney ~

STEWARDSHIP: TIME, TALENT, TREASURE

THANK YOU for your generous support on World Mission Sunday. While only some are called to go to the Missions to serve, all of us are called, by our Baptism, to support the Church's missionary work by our prayers and financial help. To continue answering this call, visit MISSIO.org

Your share from God's blessings to the support of your parish and missions is greatly appreciated!

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR!

A QUICK REMINDER TO SET YOUR CLOCK BACK 1
HOUR NEXT SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 5.
