VOCATION REFLECTION- 27TH Sunday of the Year

Young children learn much from the example of the adults in their lives. Pray today for married people, that they may be faithful to their call to married life and be an inspiration to their children.

If your call in life is to the priesthood or religious life, contact Fr. Michael Casey, Director of Vocations, Pastoral Center, Tel. 860-761-7456, email: vocations@aohct.org or visit the web

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

October 07, 2018

"Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." This verse is part of a beautiful reflection on childlike faith. We're reminded of the innocence of children, how eager they are to experience life and how quick they are to trust. Rarely do we hear it with the story that immediately proceeds it. The Pharisees question Jesus on the lawfulness of divorce! Hardly the sort of thorny moral conversation one typically has in front of children. Yet here we are. Jesus' response goes further back than the Mosaic law. "From the beginning, God made them male and female ... the two shall become one flesh ... what God has joined together, no human being must separate." Jesus cites a particular set of passages from Genesis 1 and 2, before the Fall in Genesis 3. Adam and Eve possessed original innocence. How eager they were to encounter one another and to explore the garden! How immediate their initial trust in God. We no longer live in Eden. As we age in our fallen world, our childlike trust is wounded and betrayed. We become hardened to the beauties of life. We're quick to find a way around difficult moments.

In brief, things become complicated as we lose our innocence. The teachings of Christ and the Church on sexuality become more challenging or more objectionable. Jesus recognizes this in today's Gospel. His invitation is not to compromise with our broken reality. It is a return to beauty, to the fullness of life as it was meant to be. We can affirm our trust in God. We can view life with gratitude. We can experience healing of our lost innocence. This is possible today -- now! -- by grace. Indeed, "the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO

Ante el matrimonio, lo que Dios une es al amor, de dos personas, antes que el acta de matrimonio. El amor no es un sentimiento, sino una decisión que toman ambos conyugues y que ambos toman votos de que el amor permanezca hasta que la muerte los separe. Si todos entendieran este concepto, no existiría tanto divorcio, tanto maltrato ni tanta separación de familias.

El Evangelio lo pone así: "Por eso dejará el hombre a su padre y a su madre para unirse con su esposa, y serán los dos una sola carne" (Marcos 10:6-8). Es decir, lo que Dios une no lo puede separar el hombre. La soledad no es buena, eso lo sabemos todos, pero, a la vez la libertad y el respeto entre los cónyuges es esencial para una familia sana.

Tener una relación saludable no significa que no haya momentos de desacuerdo. Entre una pareja que lleva años de casados, se nota que hay una lucha de mantener la fidelidad. Con su historia de alegría y sufrimiento el corazón se hace más fuerte ante las dificultades y su comunicación más abierta y sincera. En tal apertura, Dios está presente en sus vidas. La oración de este día nos invita a abrir el corazón al amor de Dios para que nos sane de la soledad y del egoísmo. "Dios todopoderoso y eterno, que con amor generoso desbordas los méritos y deseos de los que te suplican, derrama sobre nosotros tu misericordia, para que libres nuestra conciencia de toda inquietud y nos concedas aun aquello que no nos atrevemos a pedir." Hoy en día, ¿qué hacen las parejas para mejorar sus matrimonios? ¿Cómo pueden ser más fieles y amorosos con sus hijos?

The Holy Spirit Acts Constantly

"As a priest in the Archdiocese of Hartford, I feel blessed to be a part of the V Encuentro. It is also providential that it took place during this time of pain and sorrow, as we see the sex scandals unfold. In the midst of the situation, comes a light of faith and hope. The presence of bishops, priests, deacons and laity, motivates us to continue in communion with the Church, being the body of Christ and continue as missionary disciples every day." - Fr. Diego Jimenez, Pastor of All Saints Parish in Waterbury

El Espíritu Santo Actúa Constantemente

"Como sacerdote en la Arquidiócesis de Hartford, me siento bendecido por ser parte del V Encuentro. También es providencial que haya tenido lugar durante este tiempo de dolor y tristeza, ya que vemos que se desarrollan los escándalos sexuales. En medio de la situación viene a la luz la fe y la esperanza. La presencia de obispos, sacerdotes, diáconos y laicos nos motiva a continuar en comunión con la Iglesia, siendo el cuerpo de Cristo y continuando como discípulos misioneros todos los días". - Pr. Diego Jiménez-Párroco de la Parroquia Todos los Santos en Waterbury
