5th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." - Lk 5:5

Simón replicó: "Maestro, hemos trabajado toda la noche y no hemos pescado nada; pero, confiado en tu palabra, echaré las redes". - Lc 5, 5

Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

We are pleased to welcome RIBA ASPIRA Career Academy to our neighborhood. Their goal is to address the economic and racial/ethnic inequities that have devalued our once vibrant South End neighborhood by creating a strong, resident-driven, civic infrastructure, realigning and relocating job training services and revising child care decision-making policies to be more equitable, insuring adequate access for neighborhood residents, children and families. For more information call Director Joel Rivera at 203-527-6385 Ext. 303 or stop by his office at 233 Mill St, 3rd floor in Waterbury.

Job Opportunity

Are you looking to earn extra income while your children are in school?

All Saints Parish is looking for 2 hard-working and reliable individuals to fulfill a vital role in our parish and who will take pride in maintaining the cleanliness and the appearance of our churches and other parish facilities. These year round cleaning position hours are: Monday thru Friday 9AM to 2PM. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to dusting, vacuuming, mopping floors, washing windows, refilling supplies, emptying wastebaskets, etc. Heavy lifting is required. Bilingual (English-Spanish) is helpful.

To apply for one of these positions, please submit your resume to Deacon Paul Iadarola in the parish center office. The successful candidates will be required to pass a background check and a pre-employment medical exam, including a drug test prior to employment. VIRTUS (protecting God's Children) training will be required for the successful applicants.

A note from Religious Education... There will be a meeting for all parents of students in the First Communion class on Sunday, February 24th at 12:00pm in the Rita P. Frigon Hall.

This meeting is very important, please make every effort to attend.

The staff and volunteers of the Religious Education Program would like to express their gratitude to the Social Action Committee for their outstanding effort in the celebration of the Epiphany. Also a special "Thank you" to Mrs. Elaine Strobel for her thoughtful generosity.

GREGORIAN CHANT SEMINAR WITH JOHN BRODEUR

February 27, 2019 from 7:00 - 8:30 pm
The Songs of Christ and His Church

A free seminar about why Gregorian Chant matters for the average Catholic.

An exciting and engaging introduction to Gregorian Chant, its history, theology, and practice in the life of the Church. John will provide a primer on what makes Gregorian Chant such a unique form of music and why the Church has always spoken of this music as "her own". Designed for both the professional musician and the musically-challenged. Explore how singing and listening to Gregorian Chant could actually deepen and enrich your spiritual life. Light refreshments will be provided. Register online at www.enders.is/FebChant

Sharing the Gospel With Children

You and your friends fished all night long without any luck at all. Then Jesus comes along. He says, "Throw your nets in the deepest water." You say, "We've been fishing out there all night. We haven't caught a single fish. However, I'll do as you say." Then you catch so many fish, the nets begin to rip apart. Jesus told Simon Peter, "Don't be afraid! Now you will bring in people, instead of fish."

Prayer

Lord, help me bring others closer to you.

Something to Draw

Draw Simon Peter's boat with his nets overflowing with fish.

Mission for the Week

I will remind my family to ask God for answers to their problems. ©2008 • LPiResourceCenter.com

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Do you have enough? Many of us come from a nation of material abundance. We have all the things we could possibly need not only to survive, but to thrive - food, shelter, mental ability, income, access to medical care. Most people in human history lived with far less than we. So why are we so dissatisfied? Some Christians can be drawn to the "prosperity Gospel." This is the idea that following God will bring us material abundance in this life.

That surely seems to be the story of today's Gospel! Peter and his friends chose - with some faith - to put out their nets a final time at Jesus' command. "They caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that they were in danger of sinking." What gift! What abundance! What prosperity! Peter and his friends caught more fish than they'd ever seen. Yet what is their response to this material abundance, this gift from God? They leave it behind. "When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him."

Praying for God to meet our physical, material needs is not a bad thing! Jesus himself includes "give us this day our daily bread" in the prayer he teaches his disciples. The question is, how do we respond when our prayers are answered? Do we thank God briefly, or perhaps ignore Him completely and move on with our lives? Or do we respond as Peter did? "God? You showed up in an area that has no bearing on my eternal salvation. You gave me a gift I didn't even really need. You love me! You really do love me." Is our gratitude only surface level? Or do we allow ourselves, like Peter did, to respond with wonder, awe, and deeper discipleship?

STEWARDSHIP: TIME, TALENT, TREASURE

Your blessings received from God and shared for the support of your parish and missions is greatly appreciated!
