SACRED HEART CHURCH
13 WOLCOTT ST., WATERBURY, CT

Daily Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you my prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of this day, for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends, and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Next week we will take up the Peter's Pence

Collection to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Sacred Vessels

Have you ever paid attention to the purification of the sacred vessels after Holy Communion? If you haven't, I highly recommend doing so this Sunday. See the care with which the priest handles the chalice and the paten, pouring water into them to cleanse any loose particles of the Body and Blood of Christ. Observe the loving reverence he uses in wiping them dry with a special purificator. It's a ritual unto itself, and a powerful moment for reflection.

These vessels begin as earthly objects. They are made by human hands. There is nothing special about them – not until they go about the work for which they have been created. Until they contain the Body and Blood of Christ, they are only ordinary objects. But after they have carried within them the Eucharist, they are never the same. They will always be special and deserving of special care.

That's why partaking of the Eucharist is, for us, an evangelical undertaking. It is both a transformation and a declaration. When we accept this tremendous gift, we are proclaiming what we believe, and we are accepting the grace to follow through on that commitment.

When we are receiving the Eucharist, it is not possible for us to be passive. We become the vessel. We carry Christ into the world with us.

But do we act like it? Do we treat ourselves – our bodies, our souls – with the same respect as the priest cleansing the chalice? Do we treat one another with the reverence we would reserve for a sacred object? When we look at another person with anger or irritation or envy, do we acknowledge the change that we have willingly undergone by receiving Christ's Body and Blood into ourselves?

Oración en el Día del Padre

Señor Dios, Padre bueno, creador del género humano, Tú enviaste a tu Hijo Jesús, para redimir y salvar a los hombres, El quiso nacer en una familia como la nuestra, le diste a la Virgen María como madre y a San José como padre; te pedimos por estos padres para que, a ejemplo de San José, amen a sus hijos, los cuiden y protejan, y sobre todo, les enseñes a amarte a Ti que eres nuestro Padre del Cielo, te sirvan en todo, y alcancen finalmente la vida eterna. Te lo pedimos a Ti que vives y reinas por los siglos de los siglos. Amen

In 2022, no men in the Archdiocese of Hartford will be ordained as priests. For the past few years, we've heard much about a vocations crisis throughout our country, and we have arrived at that fork in the road. There are two paths forward: one where years without priestly ordinations become normalized, and the other where men throughout the Archdiocese open themselves to the joyful, exciting, virtuous, and courageous life of being a priest of God and a priest of the Archdiocese.

As resources are released, videos and links we will be shared considering these two paths to engage parishioners in this critical conversation.

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts.

You are our model of a loving father.

When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others.

Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance. We ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen
