EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP- RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

THE RESURRECTION AND SPIRITUAL HANGRINESS

I want to talk about being hangry. I'll give you a quick description of hangriness, though I warn you, it doesn't come from the Oxford English Dictionary. Hangriness is when you're so hungry you get angry. You turn into a real piece of work. You can't get anything done and you're probably not a joy to be around, at least until you grab a snack. Everybody gets this way sometimes.

We can be this way in our souls, too. It's so easy to get distracted by the hungers of this world: greed, pride, anxiety. We can become ruled by the needs of our bodies and the desires of our mind and, in doing so, neglect the needs and the desires of our souls.

Everyday stewardship calls us to a constant reflection on the truth that we are not made for this world, as Christ clearly shows us in his Transfiguration. He reveals himself in his heavenly glory, just before he is going to be deprived of all earthly needs and wants — even his very life. He shows us that this is what we were meant for. This is what we are striving for.

Lent exists to remind us that we are not made for this world. When you become spiritually hangry — or as Scripture more eloquently puts it this week, when your mind is "occupied with earthly things" — turn your thoughts to the Transfiguration. I promise you, it's even better than grabbing an energy bar.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

Si bien tenemos que ser conscientes de nuestras responsabilidades sociales y personales en este mundo, nunca podemos perder de vista dónde se encuentra nuestra verdadera ciudadanía: el cielo. Cuando nos sumergimos demasiado en las cosas terrenales y nos preocupamos demasiado por nuestras responsabilidades temporales, podemos volvernos insensibles a nuestra fe. El volvernos ambivalentes acerca de nuestra fe, nuestra creencia en Jesucristo y las promesas del cielo se convierten más en una fuente de agitación que en una fuente de promesa y esperanza. Es fácil convertirse en enemigo de Cristo sin siquiera saber que está sucediendo. Dios nos ha dado un destino muy claro. Definitivamente no estamos destinados a conformarnos a este mundo sino a la transfiguración y glorificación de nuestros cuerpos por venir. Es aquí donde podemos ver claramente no solo quién es Dios, sino quiénes somos nosotros. La forma en que muchos llevan a cabo las actividades diarias de sus vidas sugiere que tal promesa o esperanza es de poca importancia. ¿Qué dice de ti la forma en que vives tu vida diaria?

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH
St. Patrick | March 17

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 – 493) is a well-known saint around the world.

St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped back to Britain on a ship, where he was eventually reunited with his family.

His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.
