these Galileans suffered in

you will all perish as they did!" - Lk 13:2-3

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Deserts can be lonely, isolated, and treacherous places. When a person wanders in a desert, they can easily get disoriented, dehydrated, confused, lost, and vulnerable. Temptation is at its peak, especially when confronted with something that may offer some respite or relief, even a mirage. Deserts can bring us to our weakest moment and tempt our faith. The Christian journey can be described as a desert experience as we vacillate back and forth, falling victim to the mirages of our lives versus the true, life-giving water offered by God. We need a burning bush experience in our lives that convinces us of the power of God and reveals Him as the "I am" of all existence.

Moses was leading his flock across the desert when he found himself at Mount Horeb. Mountains give us a fuller perspective of life, a panoramic view of what would otherwise be hidden from the limitations of our sight. That's when Moses met God. We have to find our way to a mountain experience where our vantage point can take on a wider view of life. Many things can do this for us: the birth of a child, the death of someone we love, the joy that comes from marveling at the beauty of God's work, the pondering of life's mysteries, and the ache of longing found deep within our souls. There are many things in life that can wake us up, give us a clearer, better view of things and become occasions where a bush may burn and God's presence as the eternal uncreated One is revealed.

God is very patient and gives us the time and space we need to figure things out and bear some good fruit. He doesn't rush to cut us down or get frustrated with our barrenness. But we have to remember that the desert journeys of our lives come with some risks. The major risk is that we will mistakenly believe that the mirages are real. Thus, we fall victim to thinking that the respite and refreshment we seek is discovered in a place other than where it actually is. Our faith and the life of the Church are the safeguards we need to keep us properly orientated so that we don't get lost or confused and stay on course.

VESTIDURAS DE SACERDOTE

Pregunta:

¿Por qué los sacerdotes usan vestiduras? ¿Tienen un significado especial?

Respuesta:

Las vestimentas son prendas que se usan para un propósito específico. Los sacerdotes bromearán diciendo que tapan mil defectos. Pero nuestra propia forma de vestir a menudo corresponde a lo que hacemos. Nos vestimos para ocasiones especiales, y para invitados especiales. Usamos cierta ropa para golf, para actividades al aire libre, y hace años, incluso teníamos nuestra "mejor ropa de domingo" que usábamos solo para la Iglesia. Las vestimentas son muy parecidas, y cada una tiene un significado. El alba es un recuerdo de la prenda bautismal. La estola es un símbolo del ministerio ordenado y la autoridad dentro de la Iglesia. La casulla nos recuerda que estamos en peregrinación de fe, transitando por esta vida hacia el cielo.

Los sacerdotes usan vestimentas por dos razones básicas. Primero, llaman la atención sobre la importancia y solemnidad del acto de adoración. El color de las vestiduras indica la estación del año o la fiesta que se celebra. En segundo lugar, las vestiduras llaman la atención sobre lo que hace el sacerdote, más que sobre quién es. En la celebración de la Misa, el enfoque está en lo que hacemos juntos, en nuestra unidad común y en el misterio y la persona de Cristo.
