VOCATION REFLECTION - SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

All that Jesus has comes from the Father, and He shares all with us. "The words you gave to me I have given to them and they accepted them." If you have accepted the idea of a vocation to priesthood or religious life, contact Fr. Michael Casey, Director of Vocations, Pastoral Center, phone 860-761- 7456, e-mail: vocations@aohct.org or visit the web at www.hartfordpriest.com.

Please keep in your prayers the sick, the homebound and those affected by the coronavirus.

The St. John Vianney Vocation Prayer Society (SJVPS), is a prayer apostolate founded in 2016 through the Office of Vocations of the Archdiocese of Hartford. Members of this prayer apostolate commit to pray daily for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and the consecrated life in whatever way is most comfortable for them. There are no dues or mandatory meetings - just a commitment to pray!

Prayer is the support that brings to fruition the seed of the vocation within the men and women who offer their lives to serve Our Lord. It is through the grace of daily prayer that you will partake in the work of building the culture of vocations in the Archdiocese of Hartford. So why not join us today?

No Public Eucharist? Christ's Presence Is in the Bible!

Don't let COVID-19 keep you from nurturing your faith in our Lord Jesus. The Bible offers Christ's true presence in Sacred Scripture any and every day of the week! The Hartford Catholic Biblical School (CBS) is enrolling now and plans to offer hybrid classes (combining virtual and in-person gatherings) in the Fall of 2020. For more information, check out our web pages and video at <https://catholicedaohct.org/prospective-students>.

Catholic Biblical School Online Options

All CBS classes will be held virtually using the internet or telephone until it is deemed safe to gather in person. This may extend to CBS Opening Days and fall classes. We will open up traditional and hybrid gatherings as soon as the situation allows.

STEWARDSHIP: TIME, TALENT, TREASURE

◆ Thank you to all who have mailed in their offertory contributions or donated online. Make giving easier. Visit our parish website on your mobile device, click the Online Giving link, and begin giving.

Your support throughout the year helps sustain our church.

◆ We thank those who have given, and encourage those who haven't to join us in this important endeavor. Please visit the Appeal website at www.archdioceseofhartford.org to learn more or make your gift today.

All funds contributed to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal are used exclusively for the purposes outlined in the Appeal literature, which can be found at:

<https://archdioceseofhartford.org/appeal/>. No Appeal funds are ever used for legal fees or settlements.

Your blessings received from God and shared for the support of your Parish and missions is greatly appreciated.

"No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends."

Christians are no strangers to sacrifice. Jesus lays down his life for our redemption, martyrs remain faithful to the end, and every believer faces "deaths" in the spiritual life when love requires a re-ordering of preference and priority.

On Memorial Day, we honor those who laid down their lives for their nation and for the values we espouse - freedom, justice, and a better world for our children. In a day that often fills with barbecues and boat launches, remember to take some time in prayer! Intercede for those who have died and for the loved ones they left behind, and pray for peace on earth.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO - 7º Domingo de Pascua

Jesús ora por el nuevo Pueblo Santo; es la belleza de este Séptimo Domingo de Pascua. Ha llegado la hora de ser glorificados tanto el Padre como el Hijo. Pero antes el reza por nosotros: "Padre Santo, guárdalos en ese Nombre tuyo que a mí me diste, para que sean uno como nosotros." (Juan 17:11). Si cada uno se diera a la tarea de reflexionar en lo más profundo del corazón sobre esta oración de Jesús, se daría cuenta del amor tan profundo de Dios Padre hacia su Hijo y viceversa, "Pues todo lo mío es tuyo y todo lo tuyo es mío." (Juan 17:10), y de cuanto somos amados por Dios. ¿Nosotros somos completamente de Dios? Si, completamente; para eso se necesita una comprensión profunda fundada en un proceso de vida de oración e intimidad con Jesucristo.

San Francisco de Asís lo reflexiono así en su "Carta a los fieles": "¡Oh, cuán glorioso y santo y grande, tener en los cielos un Padre! ¡Oh, cuán santo, tener un esposo consolador, bello y admirable! ¡Oh, cuán santo y cuán caro tener tal hermano y tal hijo, placentero, humilde, pacífico, dulce, amable y sobre todas las cosas deseable! el que dio su vida por sus ovejas (Juan 10: 15) y oró al Padre por nosotros diciendo: Padre santo, guárdalos en tu nombre, a los que me has dado (Juan 17:11). Padre, todos los que me diste en el mundo, eran tuyos y me los diste (Juan 17: 16)."

¡Cuántos bienes hemos recibido! Los santos experimentaron en su vida terrena el mensaje de esta oración por el Pueblo Santo de Dios. ¿Usted ha experimentado en algún momento de su vida lo que San Francisco de Asís dice en su carta? Deseo, que, la celebración de la Eucaristía nos ayude a comprender mejor el sentido de la oración.

¡Ven y adora al Señor desde su automóvil!

⇒ En la basílica de la Inmaculada Concepción en Waterbury de 6am-12pm y 1:00-7:45pm

⇒ Televisado en vivo desde la capilla de EWTN canal 562 (Frontier) o 238 (Xfinity) de 9:30am - 6pm

"Nadie tiene mayor amor que el que da su vida por sus amigos." Los cristianos no son extraños a los sacrificios. Jesús da su vida por nuestra redención, los mártires permanecen fieles hasta el final, y cada creyente se enfrenta a "muertes" en la vida espiritual cuando el amor requiere un reordenamiento de preferencia y prioridad.

En el Día de los Caídos (Memorial Day), honramos a aquellos que dieron su vida por su nación y por los valores que defendemos: libertad, justicia y un mundo mejor para nuestros hijos. En un día que a menudo se llena de barbacoas y lanzamientos de botes, ¡recuerde tomarse un tiempo para rezar! Intercede por aquellos que murieron y por los seres queridos que dejaron atrás, y reza por la paz en la tierra.

Sharing the Gospel with Children

Jesus prayed for his friends. He knew they were a special gift from God. Jesus was patient with them. He taught them about God. He cared about his friends and forgave them from his heart. Everything that Jesus did showed what God was like. Be a friend like Jesus. Care for your friends like God does.

Prayer

God, thank you for my friends. Help me to treat them like you would.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of you with your friends.

Mission for the Week

The next time you talk to God, pray for each of your friends. Ask your friends to pray for you, too.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Everlasting Easter

The Easter season is almost over. This season is always a tougher one for us Catholics. We get Advent and Lent: preparation. We are on board with Christmas, mainly because we like to keep up our decorations until someone tells us the exact day we must take them down. But Easter as a season is a bit more difficult to observe. The rest of the world has moved on. There are no Easter eggs left in store windows and all those religious movies on television have given way to reruns or season-ending episodes. It just feels like Easter anywhere ... except in the Church.

The truth is that it should feel like Easter all year-round in the Church. Every Sunday, we celebrate a mini-Easter. Our Lord is ALIVE! He is risen and alive, and we need to celebrate. We also need to be about the work of the Lord. We are an Easter people who bear witness to his resurrection through our stewardship. If he had never risen, then we would be called to nothing by no one. But he lives! As this Easter season is drawing to a close, it is prudent to reflect on what his death and resurrection mean for each of us. How has it changed us? How does it motivate us? It doesn't look like Easter in most corners of the world, so it is up to us to bring a little Easter to every place we go and to everyone we meet.
