SPEAKER BIO

Jeannette is a keynote speaker, alternative practice dental hygienist and public health educator. Jeannette owns and operates a portable dental hygiene practice which has broadened her opportunity to work collaboratively using an interdisciplinary approach. As an empath, Jeannette deeply enjoys connecting with patients. She is dedicated to the human side of healthcare work, especially helping to increase access to care and assisting patients to overcome dental trauma.

Jeannette's educational background includes dual master's degrees in dental hygiene and public health. She has conducted and published research about the experiences of men who are dental hygienists. Jeannette is a member and past Vice President of the California Dental Hygienists' Association. Jeannette was awarded the President's Commitment to Diversity Award from MCPHS University and was a recipient of the 2021 Sunstar RDH Award of Distinction. Jeannette currently works as a dental liaison for the California Department of Developmental Services and is an adjunct faculty at the Forsyth's School of Dental Hygiene graduate studies program.
