WILD GOOSE BILL DAYS 2026

THANK YOU! To ALL the many Volunteers/Groups who helped make this year's Wild Goose Bill Days such a success!!

Town of Wilbur with efforts of the Town Crew, especially Eric Morris – Kathleen Shumway & many volunteers providing breakfast at Sonrise Church – Ron & Tammy Laughbon & many volunteers for Wild Goose Chase, including Tom Simurdak & his fiddle – Wilbur Senior Center Pies & Coffee – Michol Phillips & Monica Oakes who helped bring 21 vendors to Wilbur & Eric Noland & Jim Bauer who helped setup & take down vendors – Special thanks to Courtney, who submitted her usual timely requests to close Main/Highway 2 for our local parade. Tiffany Phelps & Kim Dreger worked to get the parade on Main and the Wilbur area Boy Scouts carried the flags.

Thanks to all the parade helpers!- Lion's Club for coordinating fishing derby, their famous food in the park and paying for the porta- potties – Kim Dreger for the Booster Club's Country Hoops 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament – Paul & Brey Pimenta for providing speaker system for announcements & music in the park – 8 Bar B Motel, Krichele & Elias, for providing floating bubbles and bubble games in the park – Ellen Young & her helpers, including her dad, Eric Young, who put together a fun laser tag area on Friday afternoon in Town Park – Hesseltine Library book sale & quilt fundraiser were a hit!

Thank you to the Lincoln Co. Sheriff Department officers, who helped keep our event a safe place to have fun – Dustin Kenagy for arranging an awesome car show with 15 vehicles!

– Charlene Douglas for posting on our Wilbur Chamber website, wilburwachamber.com – Steff Arnett for designing flyers & posting articles on our Wilbur Chamber Facebook page – Jim Bauer & Monica Oakes for getting banners out in April & sign boards up for advertising as well as newspaper ads and event posters. The Wilbur Register staff for supporting WGB Days with the Gazette and schedule details & Julie Hill and her family who helped with frozen water hose for the food vendors, as well as Julie for taking memorable photos!

Thanks a lot from the Wilbur Chamber of Commerce!!

See you next year on 3rd Saturday weekend - May 14, 15 & 16, 2027
