Approved, December 25th, 1862.

DECISIONS OF THE COMMISSIONER.

The following decisions have been made, from time to time, by Hon. Geo. S. Boutwell, Commissioner, etc., upon the various matters to which they refer.

The item marked "Express" on page 89 of the Excise Law, was not intended to embrace the freight business of railroads and ordinary wagoners, but is limited to persons who are express carriers, and not merely common carriers, under the law. The distinction is very well known in practical business. The express carrier is usually expected to take the parcel, box or bundle, from the house or place of business of the consignor to the house or place of business of the consignee, while a railway company receives and delivers goods only at its own stations.

In the absence of specific language in the statutes, authorizing the broader construction, I must hold, that persons and companies engaged in transporting goods over the country, as such business is usually performed by railway corporations, are not liable to the payment of a stamp tax upon the receipt given for such goods. I am also of opinion that the first item in schedule B, does not include such receipts for freight as are usually given by railway companies.

A receipt is, no doubt, in a technical sense, an agreement or contract; but in the ordinary use of language, this close construction does not hold. Had Congress intended to include receipts, it would have so provided in plain language.

Marriage contracts are subject to a ten cent stamp duty, under the clause "Certificate of any other description than those specified."

The certification of a bank check by the paying teller's marking it, or writing his name across it, does not come within the meaning of the law relative to certificates, and is not therefore subject to stamp.

When the Clerk of a Court certifies a paper to be a copy by marking the same "copy," and signing his name thereto, it will be necessary to affix a ten cent stamp.

A stamp will be required upon every certificate which has or may have a legal value in any Court of law or equity.

Certificates, warrants, orders, and drafts, by one State officer upon another, for the purpose of carrying on the internal business of the Government, are not subject to a stamp tax.

The same rule applies to the certificates, orders, etc., of county, city and town officers.

Whenever the officers of a corporation receive satisfactory evidence that any person, persons or party shall become stockholders in such corporation, and shall make in the books thereof requisite entries showing that such person, persons or party shall have become stockholders, and shall make and sign a certificate or certificates thereof, it shall be the duty of such officers to affix to every such certificate the appropriate revenue stamp, the expense thereof to be paid by the person, persons or party for whose use or benefit such certificate or certificates shall be made and signed.

The stamp duty must be paid upon the amount of compensation named in the deed. Any fraud in naming the amount will invalidate the instrument.

The mere transfer or release of a mortgage does not require a stamp.

The ordinary acknowledgment by the grantor before a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public is a part of the deed and does not require a separate stamp; but a certificate that A. B. was a Justice, etc., would require a stamp.

The form of affidavit, "sworn, etc., etc.," is not a certificate under the law, and requires no stamp.

Messages transmitted by telegraph and railroad companies over their own wires, on their own business, for which they receive no pay, are not taxable.

Telegraphic dispatches or messages sent from an office without the United States to an office within the United States, are not subject to stamp tax, provided the message be transmitted direct to its final destination.

If received at an office within the United States, and repeated to another office within or without the United States, the stamp must be affixed and canceled by the operator at the office where the message is repeated.

A power of attorney to sell stock, to vote at an election, to collect rent, and to sell real estate, requires a one dollar and sixty cent stamp.

All papers, except bills of exchange, made and issued in foreign countries, which, to have effect in the United States, would require a stamp, must be stamped, and the stamp canceled by the maker, at the time and place of issue, as provided in sections 94-99 of Excise law. This practice is not only required by the Excise law of the United States, but it also conforms to the English system in that particular.

Whenever an instrument is executed by several parties acting jointly, one stamp only is required, which may be affixed and canceled by either of the parties.

Bills Lading from home to foreign ports, (except to British North America) when issued in sets of two or more, require a stamp on each one of the set.

Each insurance policy, whether fire or marine, must be stamped, and an open policy will require but one stamp when the risks entered under each policy are all upon property of the policy-holder.

Whenever certificates or other evidence of insurance are issued by the holder of an open policy, every such paper must bear an appropriate insurance stamp.

All life insurance policies are subject to stamp duties when the policy is conditional that the assured is to pay a certain sum annually, or at other stated periods. Receipts for such payments are not subject to stamp duty if the policy has expired by limitation, or by non-fulfillment of the conditions of the assured. The renewal or the revival of the policy, in whatever form, will be subject to stamp duty. Permits or agreements by which the terms of a policy are waived or changed in any respect, are subject to stamp as agreements.

A lease, or agreement to lease, from month to month—no period of years being named—must be construed to mean and be regarded as a lease for a period of time, and therefore subject to a stamp duty.

In stamping promissory notes or other instruments requiring stamps, under the provisions of the Excise law, two or more of a smaller denomination may be used in numbers sufficient to amount to the sum of the stamp required.

Stamps used by banks, insurance companies, and other corporations, may be canceled by means of a stamping press, with the name of the corporation and date duly affixed.

Bills of sale of vessels, or other bills of sale, do not come within the meaning of the Excise law, and are therefore exempt from stamp duty.

Actions by consent are subject to stamp duty as original process.

Bonds for the conveyance of land come within the meaning of the second clause of schedule B, pertaining to bonds, and are therefore subject to a stamp duty of twenty-five cents.

Replevin bonds, injunction bonds, bonds to dissolve attachment, being bonds required in legal proceedings, are exempt from stamp duty.

Trustees' bonds come within the meaning of the first clause of the schedule pertaining to bonds for the due performance of official duties, and are therefore subject to fifty cents stamp duty.

The probate of a Justice of the Peace, or other magistrate, does not require a stamp duty.

Collectors are required and directed to commence proceedings, under the law, against all persons who shall willfully neglect to use stamps as required.

CONCERNING THE AFFIXING AND CANCELING OF EXCISE STAMPS ON DOCUMENTS, ETC.

SEC. 94, of the Excise law, requires: "That on and after the first day of October, certain stamp duties shall be collected on all instruments, matters, and things, as described in schedule marked B."

SEC. 95, provides: "That if any person or persons shall make, sign, or issue, or cause to be made, signed, or issued, any instrument, document, or paper, of any kind or description whatsoever, without the same being duly stamped for denoting the duty imposed thereon, or without having thereupon an adhesive stamp to denote said duty, such person or persons shall incur a penalty of $50; and such instrument, document, or paper, shall be deemed invalid and of no effect."

It seems to me perfectly clear, that by the provisions of Sec. 95, the person who makes, signs, or issues the instrument, is the only person who is authorized to affix the stamp required by law; and the person who makes, signs, and issues, etc., without affixing the stamp, incurs the penalty as aforesaid, and is liable to prosecution therefor; and the instrument or document is invalid in consequence of such neglect.

SEC. 99 provides: "That the person using or affixing the stamp, shall write thereupon the initials of his name, date, etc."

Other portions of the law impose penalties upon persons who receive documents or articles subject to stamp duty from the person who makes, signs, and issues them, without being duly stamped, etc.

I am therefore of the opinion that a faithful compliance with the requirements of the provisions of the Excise law, demands:

First: That all papers subject to stamp tax, shall have the stamp affixed before the same is issued.

Second: That the stamp so affixed must be canceled in the manner prescribed, by the party making, signing, or issuing (in other words, executing,) the instrument, document, or paper.

Hence, the receiving of an unstamped paper is a violation of the law. The attaching and canceling of a stamp on a document so received, is also unlawful, and the cancellation of a stamp on a paper (otherwise lawfully issued) by other than the party executing the paper to which the stamp is affixed, is equally improper.

The only exception that exists in the law to the above ruling, is in the case of a bill of exchange, or order for the payment of any sum of money drawn, or purporting to be drawn, in any foreign country, but payable in the United States, in which case the acceptor or acceptors, shall, before paying or accepting the same, place thereupon a stamp, indicating the duty upon the same, as provided by Sec. 101 of the Excise law.

ON the blank pages following may be pasted any Decisions of the Commissioner hereafter rendered, which will be convenient for reference; these, with the foregoing, will doubtless soon settle every case in reference to the use of Stamps of which there may be doubt.
