May Daze

"You are as welcome as the flowers in May." ~

Charles Macklin

Of course I'm going to talk a bit about the weather. Call it crazy! We're all itching for sunshine and warmer temperatures – it's Spring Fever! Instead we have continuing gray, rainy days with a few exceptions. Sometimes I don't mind but highs in the 40s and frost warnings? May - where are you? I'm feeling a little dazed with the weather patterns (my poor Southern family and friends are dealing with deadly tornadoes and flooding.) I have a feeling Mother Nature must be a little dazed as well. The long, slug through Winter never really came, but like Winterfell, we're still not sure of Spring yet. Dazed and confused (great song, funny movie). Even our flock of turkeys have gone for cover (or they all looked up and drowned).

But despite it all, May is here. The flowers are trying to bloom and the trees are blossoming. It's what my husband calls "salad" season. Salad for your car because of the rain and the blossoms coating it. But, it may be that when Spring finally pops through with sunny days, we may see something akin to the desert super bloom. I have a feeling that when we return from our vacation this month, we will see magnificent colors and bright green leaves. One hopes. In the meantime, we're following what many of you have planned or have already taken advantage of – warmth of a tropical beach, turquoise water, snorkeling, swimming, and totally forgetting the daily routine for a bit.

And as dazed as we feel now, we are still looking forward to gardening and that special time of year that comes next – Summer! Just another month and we hope to see those beautiful blue skies and then let the fun begin – boating, sunning, swimming – America at play!

There are some exciting things going on despite the gray and damp. Softball leagues are playing – the Gerry team is going for its 7th straight championship! The Golf League season has started. Golfers are chomping at the bit for a dry day to hit the links. Plus, we have lots of distractions to enjoy indoors as well. The Celtics and Bruins are in the playoffs. The Red Sox are slugging through the first half of the AL East season and there's NASCAR. Plenty of seats in the Clubroom to watch.

We have the Triple Crown of horse racing starting May 4th with the Kentucky Derby. Time to dust off that hat and get ready for mint juleps. We always have a grand time here at the Gerry watching the races. The Preakness follows on May 18th with the Belmont Stakes on June 8th.

We're also getting ready for the Annual Golf Tournament on June 7th. This is NOT just for Gerry members. Invite your friends, relatives, neighbors to join us for what is always a fun tournament. Details are in this newsletter.

Let's not forget Mother's Day on the 12th. We'll be serving breakfast once again, which is always a nice treat for mom and the family.

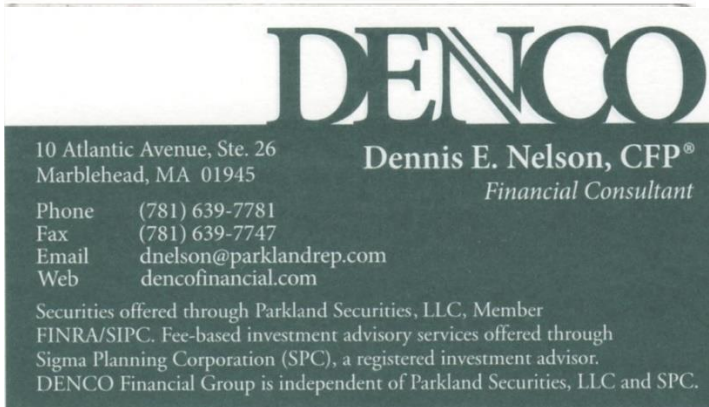

We have many opportunities for you to enjoy the club. Remember you always have a refuge here at the Gerry. There's always sports on TV and our in-house activities – pool, golf, cribbage, dice, bags, The Lottery, and good company. There's also solitude should that be your need.

Check your weekly event updates or the web site information for any changes or additions. Also, you never need an excuse to visit. We highly recommend regular visits! See you soon!

"It's spring fever.... You don't quite know what it is you do want, but it just fairly makes your heart ache, you want it so!" ~Mark Twain

Comedy Night Kills!

A lot of laughter was heard on April 20th coming from the Function Hall. It was Comedy Night. Many attendees said these were the funniest comedians we've had participate in this event in years. Hope you attended and enjoyed the evening. We recognize the timing was not optimum for some due to Easter weekend but our Function Hall is so popular we have to take what nights are available. This is good for us as far as income but makes scheduling events for ourselves difficult at times. Thank you for understanding.

Thank you to the Entertainment Committee, Vice President Martin and his kitchen crew, the dynamic duo maintenance crew and the Manager for their hard work in making this another Gerry success.

Watch the newsletter and event updates for our next big event.

May 27th – Memorial Day – WE ARE CLOSED

On Memorial Day, we pause in solemn gratitude to pay tribute to the brave patriots who laid down their lives defending peace and freedom while in military service to our great Nation. We set aside this day to honor their sacrifice and to remind all Americans of the tremendous price of our precious liberty.

Throughout the history of our Republic, courageous Americans have purchased our cherished freedom with their lives. Our 151 national cemeteries serve as the final resting place for millions of people, including veterans from every war and conflict, many of whom died while serving our country. We remain duty bound to honor those who made the ultimate sacrifice on our behalf and to remember them with thankfulness and unwavering pride. The fallen — our treasured loved ones, friends, neighbors, and fellow citizens — deserve nothing less from a grateful Nation.

Today, and every day, we revere those who have died in noble service to our country. I call upon all Americans to remember the selfless service members who have been laid to rest in flag-draped coffins and their families who have suffered the greatest loss. The sacrifices of our hallowed dead demand our Nation's highest honor and deepest gratitude. On this day, let us also unite in prayer for lasting peace in our troubled world so that future generations will enjoy the blessings of liberty and independence. ~ Donald J Trump
