Giving Thanks

"Long cold nights mark November's return, grey rains fall, wind walks in the bronze oak leaves." ~

Gladys Taber
So the trick or treaters
have had their revelry.
Candy is on sale and décor usable for Thanksgiving as well.
As I said last month, this is when I'd really like for time to slow down
just a little so we can relax and enjoy every moment. Before I address anything else, let me get this off my chest. Ok, the Patriots lost...one game! We've known there are issues, injuries, o-line, tight end, etc. But doesn't what they've accomplished so far show their dedication and fortitude. Despite the ugliness and disappointment, they have only lost ONE game. We are very spoiled. We must remember they are human and mostly youngish. Sometimes they almost seem superhuman. There are many games and opportunities left. Don't let the Ravens school yard play freak you out. Now the perfect season pressure is gone. Our Patriots will fix the issues and fill the holes in our run for Lombardi #7! Have faith and Do Your Job!

Speaking of doing your job, kudos to the landscapers and everyone (including my DH), for the storm cleanup. I know some of us had serious damage. We hope your insurance is good and repairs are underway. Our few hours of no power were nothing compared to friends in Connecticut who went for days. I swear two truckloads of leaves came out of our yard alone but no downed trees or limbs. We are thankful.

We've fallen back (hopefully not behind) and darkness arrives earlier in the evening. I don't mind but I'm no longer commuting in it. Does this really save energy? Help our farmers? Anyone? Does anyone know? I love Autumn with the beautiful leaves, the crunch when you walk or kick through them, the chilly nights that make for good sleeping. Halloween brought us the beginning of the festivities leading up to the New Year. Next up is Thanksgiving. I often fear this wonderful holiday will get eclipsed over time by the big HO HO HO that's December. But this is an entirely different type of celebration. It's about giving thanks. No gifts, no parties, just a celebration of our blessings and being thankful for what we have, no matter what our circumstances are.

Thanksgiving started with giving thanks for a bountiful harvest. Now it still involves food and sharing it with those we love and appreciate but we need to remember to be thankful for all that is good in our lives and in the world if you think holistically.

We're thankful for our happiness, our lovely home, the love we share, our friends, family, and so many things. I'm thankful for the Gerry No. 5 and the opportunities it has afforded us. I was afraid of being bored in retirement – little did I know!

On behalf of myself and the entire Gerry No. 5 crew, we wish you a Happy Thanksgiving! We're going to have a wonderful Thanksgiving Feast available here at the Gerry – it's Open to the Public! See the details and menu later. Don't feel like cooking or have a large group, we've got the answer for you.

We have lost of events for members, the public, and private parties coming up – check the calendar, website, and newsletters/updates for the latest events, both members only and open to the public. Our caterer is eager to please and offers delicious alternatives.

Remember the Gerry is always a refuge after a hard day. As always, we have many opportunities for you to enjoy the club. Sports on TV, pool, golf, cribbage, dice, bags, The Lottery, and good company. There's also solitude should that be your need. You never need an excuse to visit. We highly recommend regular visits! See you soon! "Delicious autumn! My very soul is wedded to it, and if I were a bird, I would fly about the earth seeking the successive autumns." ~ George Eliot

October Blood Drive Results

The October Blood Drive held in memory of Karen Rideout Rogers was another illustration of how great it is to give. Of the 105 people who came through the doors, we received 113 pints. These included 13 power reds and 6 new donors.

We thank the Gerry for providing the food and the kitchen for their efforts. We thank everyone who participated and donated to such a worthy cause.

The next Blood Drive will be February 6th, 2020.

Congratulations to our Paint the Club Raffle Winner!

This just proves that you don't have to be present to win. We congratulate Mark Fader whose winning ticket was picked at random at the November 2nd drawing. Mark was away when the drawing took place so we cannot include a picture of his ecstatic reaction. Instead we are including a picture of one of the raffle prizes (made by yours truly).

We also raised a nice amount to go toward painting the outside of the building. We know we ask a lot of our members but never for frivolous items. We thank all who contributed and participated in the raffle. We also thank Joan Champlin, Art Dodge, and the Secretary for their hard work.

2020 Election Ballot

By-Law Changes Vote December 4th

The following changes to By-Laws Article III Regular Meeting of Members and Article XIX Dues, were proposed at the October meeting upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors. The changes were opened for discussion by the membership at the November meeting. There was no discussion.

The proposed revisions are as stated below (the proposed change will be added to the end of the existing By-Law if accepted) will be voted on at the December 4th meeting by closed ballot of those present at the meeting.

|--|
| ARTICLE III Regular Meeting of Members |
| The Board of Directors may reschedule this meeting as deemed necessary in response to emergencies and acts of God. |
| RATIONALE – Gives Board the ability to change meetings due to emergencies at the Club or in general and in response to weather situations that could put the safety of members at risk by trying to attend. |
| ARTICLE XIX Annual Dues |
| Members may Resign their membership at any time. Resignations are a conscious decision on the part of the member that personal circumstances do not allow them to continue their membership, at this time. The intent is to return as a member in the future. All resignations must be tendered in writing or via e-mail. Members who resign remain in good standing with the Corporation and may attend periodically as guests. When Resigned members decide to return to paid, active status, they must pay the current rate for dues and provide their current contact information to the Corporation. |
| RATIONALE – The resignation process has been long established. This clarifies the difference between Read Out (someone who lets their dues lapse and is not a member in good standing) and Resignation (informs Club they will not be renewing for a period due to personal reasons but remain in good standing). It also simplifies the reinstatement process for Resigned members. The Resigned member will pay current rate of dues only (no processing fee) and provide their current contact information. They do not have to go through the voting process. |

You must be present at the December 4th meeting to vote on these changes!
