See You in September

"September tries its best to have us forget summer." ~ Bernard Williams

September? Already? I have a faint memory of a few people saying they were going to welcome Fall after some of the heat we had. Be careful what you wish for because we know what comes next. I knew we were in trouble when I saw Halloween items on sale right after mid-July. The first day of Fall is Monday, September 23rd. Tick, tick, tick. And, the deadline for members and returning vendors to get their special Craft Fair discount is Tuesday, September 24th.

School is back in session. It's almost Fall and with it come the harvests and Halloween is here in 55 days. There are 110 days until Christmas. Sounds like a lot but we know how that goes so please don't shoot the messenger. Hope everyone had a great summer and got to play and enjoy it a bit. We worked but tried our best to get out and enjoy those perfect days. We did get the vacation blues mid-July but of course every place we checked was booked. That's okay. We'll enjoy Fall up north in Oct. Fall is my favorite time of year. As a kid growing up in Louisiana, we dreamed of these New England Fall days with the color turning leaves, the crisp cool air, and wearing all those new school clothes. Those corduroys and long sleeve shirts had to wait for winter for us to unveil them. Kind of anti-climactic.

It's also football season! Woohoo! Patriots, LSU, BC, now this makes us happy. Football pools and fantasy leagues are up and running as of this week. Did you buy in? pick your team? I do We've started planning our schedule around Patriots games. I'm all in on the Going for #7. We like Brady's new do too. It's looking like no post season for the Red Sox. No magic this year for them. And, for us TV junkies (and who isn't nowadays), Fall TV brings new shows.

Where so I start? DVR and on demand will be busy and I just realized I have Amazon prime tv to go with Netflix and premium cable. It's a busy time of year and we're just getting started.

Busy is the word for the Gerry as well. Function Hall bookings are going well into next year already. Our regular events are coming back after summer hiatus. We're working on some new things...updates to keep up with your ideas and requests and much needed maintenance. And we have another $10K raffle. The goal this time is to paint the building! We still have other repairs and enhancements on the punch list that we'll pursue as budget and weather permit. November brings the Craft Fair and Thanksgiving and that's the cue to Sprint for Santa and 2020.

We've got club business ramping up too with elections and bylaw voting coming in December! Stay tuned. Interested in running for office, get the word out! We have all the officers and 3 directors up for re-election this year. Remember the Secretary and Treasurer are appointed positions and require special skill sets. If you are interested in these positions, you must present a resume when nominated. Note that neither of our incumbents have indicated they wish to leave the position, We've stayed busy at the Gerry with functions and there's always refuge after a hard day on the deck or in the Clubroom. As always, we have many opportunities for you to enjoy the club. There's always sports on TV. We also have our in-house activities – pool, golf, cribbage, dice, bags, The Lottery, and good company. There's also solitude should that be your need.

Check your weekly event updates or the web site information for any changes or additions. You never need an excuse to visit. We highly recommend regular visits! See you soon!

"And then the sun took a step back, the leaves lulled themselves to sleep, and Autumn awaked."
~Raquel Franco
