Horribles Parade – Returns post COVID-19, Another Success

It isn't the Fourth of July in Marblehead without the Horribles Parade. It's a great tradition and a great way to start our Independence Day celebration.

Approximately 320 kids dressed in costumes and walking participated. The Gerry No. 5 handtub made a rare appearance in the parade. It was a great event for all who participated and attended.

Thanks to the Gerry 5 VFA for providing the prizes & goodies. Thanks to the National Grand Bank for use of the parking lot & power supply. Thanks to the fire & police department for their support. Special thanks to the volunteers that made it all happen: Carol McHugh, Joan Champlin (54th year as a volunteer for the parade), Steve Ruiz, Marilyn Skidgell-Willard, Anne Marie Hart, Julie Dunn Cashman, Tom Cashman, Mark Lausier, Michael Butler, Douglas Drew Sr., Jim Full, Lisa Martin, Pam Bullis Mentuck, Michael Mentuck, John Rhodes, Cindy Croteau, Lauren Ann Goldfinger, Patricia Abrams, Arthur Dodge, Bill Richardson, Chicki Curtis, Priscilla Martin, Liz Fogerty, and Sid Tracy. Apologies to anyone we missed. Obviously, it takes a village to make this event happen.
