

Membership of the Boring Little Girls Club includes adhering, upholding and supporting the following Responsibilities:

RESPECT

- We will always ask permission! Whether it be in regards to physical touch (ie: a hug) or posting on social media – we will verbally ask permission from the other party before.
- We support and welcome all races, gender identities, religious affiliations, abilities, sexual identities and ages. We do not tolerate any form of discrimination, hate or violence.
- We respect others for the choices that they make, just as we would like to be respected for our choices.

SELF RESPONSIBILITY

- We will stay badass and sober* while participating in all Boring Little Girls Club events or while representing the Boring Little Girls Club.
- We are responsible for our own behaviour as well as the behaviour of any guests that we may bring to any Boring Little Girls Club Hangouts.
- We will to be open and honest and willing to learn in the Boring Little Girls Club.
- We are responsible for our language and our physical response to all interactions. If an issue comes up within the Boring Little Girls Club, we will try to resolve on our own in a respectful, open and honest way. If we cannot resolve we will ask for the help of the President, Vice President or the Sergeant in Arms.
- We are responsible for showing up the Boring Little Girls Club with a positive attitude.
