Payment terms

We require a £400 deposit at the time of booking, once you have chosen a date. This deposit is non-refundable as are any moneys paid from this point forward. 50% of the balance outstanding is to be paid at 6 months before your chosen date, this is your part balance payment date. If this is not met within 14 days we reserve the right to resell the date. The final balance for your event is due 3 months prior to your chosen date.

Cancellations

All deposits are non-refundable and non-transferable. If an event is cancelled over 5 months before the date in question, no more monies will be payable, but anything paid to date will be non-refundable.

Cancellations between 5 months and 3 months in advance of the event date, the venue will seek 50% of the total event price quoted at the time of booking.

Cancellations less than 3 months in advance of the event, the venue will still seek 100% of the total event price quoted at the time of booking.

All cancellations must be made in writing and will only be effective of the date they are received and acknowledged in writing by us. Only in the event of a death of either of the couple to be married will we consider a partial refund, and only on the basis that we are able to resell the date. As weddings are often booked quite some time in advance, we will find it difficult to resell a wedding date with less than a years notice.
