The Prophet's Special Friend

Do you know someone who has autism, a cognitive disability, or is blind? People with disabilities were around during the time of Prophet Muhammad (saw). Julaibeeb was one of these people. He was deformed. People did not want to be around him because of his deformity. But Prophet Muhammad (saw) loved Julaibeeb. He told Julaibeeb that he was special to Allah. The Prophet (saw) tried to make Julaibeeb happy. He even found a kind wife for him. The Prophet (saw) showed us how we should treat people who have disabilities.

MUHSEN: For Our Special Brothers and Sisters

Have you ever heard of MUHSEN? It's an organization developed by Sheikh Omar Suleiman who lives in Texas. He developed the organization to help Muslims develop a better understanding of what it's like to have a disability. He also wanted to show Muslims how they can be more helpful to people with disabilities. MUHSEN helps mosques build ramps for wheelchairs. They help find sign language interpreters for Kutbahs. They also help mosques start classes that teach about special needs. Mosques that improve services for Muslims with disabilities receive a beautiful certificate!

You are given support and provision due to your weak ones.

Allah does not look at your appearance or wealth, but rather he looks at your hearts and actions."
