The Job

12

Ismail is twelve. Twelve is a great number for a kid. Now Ismail wants a job. What job can he do?

Ismail's mom said he can sell. What will he sell? His sister said he can sell tarts or cupcakes. Ismail will sell cupcakes.

Now Ismail has to get eggs from the market. His best pal will go with him.

At the store, Ismail picks up a carton of eggs. He must not let them drop. Ismail hands the bills to the man in back of the desk. The man will put them in his bill box. Ismail is careful to set the eggs into his bag. He and his best pal go to the exit.

Ismail's mom makes the cupcake batter. She cracks the eggs. She adds the eggs to the batter. She mixes and mixes. Now she drips the batter into the cupcake tins. The tins go into the oven. The oven is hot. Mom sets the clock.

The clock rings. Mom takes the cupcakes out of the oven. She sets them on the rack to rest.

When the cupcakes are not hot, Ismail will put all of them on a long pan. Now he will go out to the masjid.

The Kutba was great! Ismail sells the cupcakes in front of the masjid. Ismail sells all of the cupcakes. The cupcakes are great! Now Ismail has a great job!
