Dear Friends,

The Burlington Antique Show is celebrating its 44th season this year and is well established as the ultimate destination for antique lovers throughout the Tristate and across the country. We offer a fun and friendly atmosphere to both shop and sell.

Due to numerous requests from our customers and vendors, we are reverting our show hours back to 6am-8am for (early buying hours) and the show will now end at a new time of 2pm.

We continue to be dedicated to promoting the show and fostering the interest of antiques to all generations of customers through social media (over 20,000 followers on Facebook) and traditional advertising.

Please take note, for the 2025 season, the April show will be held on April 13th to accommodate the Easter celebration. The June show will be held on June 8th (Second Sunday). The rest of the shows will still be held on the third Sunday of each month through October. Dealers can take advantage of receiving one free show when prepaying for the entire season prior to March 1st, which will also secure your preferred dealer space. We anticipate that this year will be another great year for all participants!

Thanks again for your participation and I look forward to seeing you at Burlington!

Cordially,
Tony Pham, Manager
