O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing

From the Pastor's Desk

The first song in the United Methodist Hymnal is "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing." It has been traditionally the opening hymn in Methodist hymnals since John Wesley's collection of hymns for the people called Methodists.

The first stanza goes " O For a thousand tongues to sing, my great Redeemer's praise, the glories of my God and King, the triumphs of his grace." The hymn deals with Charles Wesley's emotions upon his spiritual transformation. Charles Wesley was a prolific hymnodist and with John Wesley proclaimed the Good News of Jesus Christ. Imagine today the many voices praising God in the four corners of the world. You can hear this hymn sung in different languages either as a choral rendition or a congregational song.

Psalm 96 reads " O sing to the Lord a new song, sing to the Lord, all the earth, Sing to the Lord, praise his name; proclaim his salvation day after day." When we sing we bear good tidings of good news. Only a heart filled with overflowing will want to share the story of God's redeeming grace.

This season is marked with the visit of the Three Wise Men and the Baptism of Jesus. The Magi's honored Jesus with gifts symbolizing his Divinity, humanity and glory. Jesus in turn honored God by immersing himself in the water of baptism. Epiphany is most often lost in our observance because it comes in between Christmas and Easter. I like to believe that the "center" holds us together.

"He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together." (Colossians 1:17).

Be centered in Christ in all that you do. It's the New Year. We begin again in God's good time. Bishop Desmond Tutu said that Jesus is the center for him and not on the border. Imagine what God can do when we move to the center.

As we begin the New Year 2023, let us pray for a renewed church and that our ministries will continue to be a reflection of God's grace in our lives. It is an irresistible grace. God is always doing a new thing in our horizon. Share your faith stories. Invite a friend to church. Speak words of encouragement.

The light of the World has come.

Happy Epiphany and New Year.

Pastor Romir R. Esguerra

What a wonderful way to commemorate a special occasion, remember a loved one, or celebrate a joyous occasion then with beautiful flowers that would be displayed prominently on the altar or one of the tables in the church. Just fill out an Altar Flower Form (found next to the Flower Calendar on the bulletin board in the Narthex) and turn in to the office two weeks before.

If you are in need of church offering envelopes, please contact the church office at 815-725-7632.

Thank you for your faithful financial support of Grace.

Please remember to sign the attendance pads— It is so important for the purpose of accurate record keeping and for your presence to be acknowledged and recorded for the maintenance of our church membership rolls. Help the office keep up with your current address, phone #, birthdays, anniversary, etc.
