"The rest is Worship"

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. (Matthew 11:29-30)

"The rest is worship." Author Sara and Sam Hargraves wrote that it is possible to find "rest" in worship. Many during this time will find an opportunity to travel and visit friends and loved ones. Along the way we marvel at the beauty of creation in changing landscapes. Some may worship on the road by using a daily devotional like the Upper Room or find a quiet place to pray for the journey ahead.

Wherever you may decide to refresh during the brief summer season, may you find that rest. Jesus invites us to come to him and rest. Being still creates a space where we can know God, glorify him and have our souls re-stored.

We offer a variety of worship rhythm during the summer months with Holy Communion on the first Sunday, Praise and Worship the second Sunday, Hymn sing on the third Sunday and a blended worship on the fourth Sunday. All of us are here together in worship in all seasons. This is how we make connections.

Bishop Scherwin wrote that "we are awash in broken connections with self and other. These are days to reconnect with personal wellness, practices that sustain our faith and heal community."

During the Conference there was a call to prayer daily. The last night the focus was on Korea. It was a call to prayer for peace in the midst of 70 years of division. When I approached the "the fence" I immediately noticed the barb wire wrapped around the wooden frame and the straight clean wires. It jogged my memory to a time when rolls of barb wire served as a barricade preventing demonstrators from moving forward. It was a moment of "us against them."

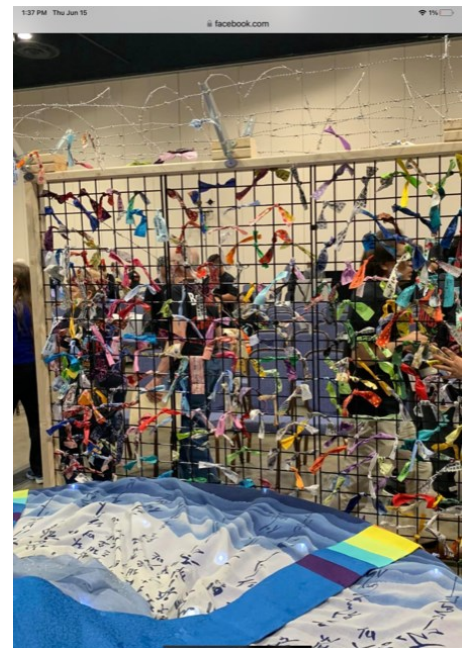

I gently wrapped my prayer ribbon, around the barb wire. The barb wire is reminiscent of the physical and spiritual pain of exclusion. On my way out of the prayer enclosure or stand I was given a small book mark with a butterfly spring. I wonder why it was called butterfly spring. It says that the butterfly spring fly freely to look for their partner. It suggests the freedom to love and seek happiness.

It was quite a contrast if one were to imagine the anguish of separation and the hope that springs eternal. The hymn says that "we are prone to wander from the God that we love". But there is a kind of love that brings us back.

This is the gift of rest because the promise reveals the expanse of God's presence. Connections are a source of making us whole.

Blessings to all,

Pastor Romir

WOW!!! Hero Hotline VBS was a Success!! We had about 54 children ages 3 yrs. – 6th grade participate in Vacation Bible School June 19-22. Each morning the Heroes and Sidekicks reported to Hotline Headquarters where they sang songs, listened to a skit and saw a Bible Video. Then they were off to do science experiments, make a craft, eat yummy snacks, play fun games and listen to a Bible story. All these activities helped the heroes discover that they can turn to God and team up with Him to help others. On June 22 from 4:30- 6, the kids and parents came to a Celebration. There were fun activities and a concert, followed by a picnic!! It was enjoyed by all who came!!! The Heroes collected items for Ridgewood Food Pantry, too.

--Strategic Planning Update:

Last year strategic planning conversation began with small group meetings. Pastor Nancy and I met with Worship, Christian Education, Trustees, and a small committee to think “outside the box” and identify areas where we can grow. ( We still have to meet with Prayer group and Mission Team.) A brief survey will go out this month to solicit more input from the rest of the congregation.

Here are the three areas that we have identified as priorities for Grace Church. It is a work in progress and we hope the “plan “ will be ready by September.

Mission Statement: “To make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by proclaiming the good news of God’s grace.”

- Digital discipleship
- Missional presence
- Generous living

Rev. Romir R. Esguerra

Sunday, September 10, 2023 will be the Rally Day / Welcome Back Sunday!

We are planning a fun day and hope that you plan to join us.

STAY TUNED FOR MORE DETAILS!

GRATITUDE CORNER

To God be the glory for the mission-mindedness of Grace UMC. We touch lots of lives outside our walls with our ministries such as Food Pantry, Day Break, ASP, UWF blanket and purse projects, VBS, and many as-the-need-arises activities.
