

LEADERSHIP TEAM MESSAGE

Dear WITVA Members:

PASSING OF THE BATON IS AN ANCIENT SYMBOL OF THE PASSAGE OF LEADERSHIP, AND WITH LEADERSHIP CHANGE COMES THE PROMISE OF FRESH IDEAS AND NEW DIRECTIONS.

Our current leaders: Susan Chorney Lewine, Kris Henke and Myrna Rodkin will serve out this term, ending in April of 2023 while helping those who will take our place with careful guidance and support for as long as we are wanted and needed.

We know the importance of mentorship and team work to bring about a smooth transition, and that is why we are beginning our search in earnest, long before our term is finished.

We want you to know when making this decision that all of us on the team have benefited greatly from the work we have done and from the wonderful members we have served and have come to know.

We want to thank you for instilling your confidence in us to have led WITVA through some challenging times.

Please let our Nominating Committee Chair, Myrna Rodkin, if you are interested or need more information: zoomf16mr@gmail.com.

JUPITER CALL TO ARTISTS

Rose Shaw would like to share with our members and others on north end of the county or anyone interested in Theme. "This is a call for exhibit "Midnight in The Garden of Good and Evil" with the Town of Jupiter Art Gallery in their community center. It's a good spot with a nice reception planned and no call fee or commission. May be a good opportunity to connect with a new place. They give priority to Jupiter residents but open to all if space allows."

BOOK: THE REMBRANDT AFFAIR,

by Daniel Silva

Two families, one terrible secret, and a painting to die for ...

Gabriel Allon is a master art restorer and assassin. It has been six months since Gabriel's showdown with Ivan Kharkov. Now, having severed his ties with the Office, but an unspeakable act of violence once again draws Gabriel into a world of danger when an art restorer is brutally murdered and a long-lost portrait by Rembrandt mysteriously stolen. Despite his reluctance, Gabriel is persuaded to use his unique skills to search for the painting and those responsible for the crime. But as he painstakingly follows a trail of clues leading from Amsterdam to Buenos Aires and, finally, to a villa on the graceful shores of Lake Geneva, Gabriel discovers there are deadly secrets connected to the painting. And evil men behind them.

Once again drawn into a world he thought he had left behind forever, Gabriel will come face to face with a glamorous London journalist who is determined to undo the worst mistake of her career, an elusive master art thief who is burdened by a conscience, and a powerful Swiss billionaire who is known for his good deeds but may just be behind one of the greatest threats facing the world.

Filled with remarkable twists and turns of plot, and told with seductive prose, The Rembrandt Affair is entertainment of the highest order.

At this event, our exhibitors will have an opportunity to speak about their art. And Kris and I will speak about our wonderful organization, Women In The Visual Arts.

TIME: 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Tuition: $210

Students will experiment with the emotional effects of color to create calm, dynamic, or moody acrylic landscape through the explanation of color theory. We will explore techniques, including blending, dry brush, textural effects with mark making and transparency and opaqueness. Students will apply personal expression of color, shapes and lines to achieve the emotional effect they wish to portray. Demonstrations of color mixing, composition and critiques will be an essential tool in this class. Students will initially work from black and white photographs and later depart from it to incorporate their own individual expression. This is an ideal class for beginners or intermediate levels and for those wishing to go beyond the photograph to abstract into modern, contemporary style with a strong emotional content.
