- A Classical Charter School is not elitist
  - Anyone can enroll

  - There are no tests to determine eligibility
- It is not exclusive, a classical education is offered to anyone who desires it, without consideration of social status, ethnicity, or income

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF A CHARTER SCHOOL?

Choice - Charter schools provide an option for parents to educate their children

Innovation - There is greater freedom to innovate in the curriculum, and in return, the school is held strictly accountable for the results

Accountability - Operates with performance goals and can be closed if they fail to meet them

HOW IS THE SCHOOL HELD ACCOUNTABLE?

- The charter school must meet or exceed the Florida standards and is graded accordingly
- More importantly, the school is held accountable by the parents that choose the school as an option
- A charter school can go out of business IF it fails to perform the mission

HOW ARE CHARTER SCHOOLS FUNDED?

- In Florida, funding follows the student — but not all funding does.
- Charter schools receive roughly 95–97% of the per-student funding allocated to traditional public schools.
- Programs and facilities supported by property taxes in district schools must be funded through alternative sources by charter schools, i.e. grants, philanthropy, private financing, etc.
