

LIFE

What is the true meaning of life? Am I living? Is life eating, sleeping, working, and drinking? That is my life.

True life is when you know what love is. To really live, you must love life. To love life you must love someone enough to live for them, entirely. If you have no one to live for, you are dead. Not dead in the true meaning of death, but you are dead. Man lives off of love. If a man doesn't love someone, how can he care if he lives or if he dies? He hopes love will come into his life, he eats, sleeps, works, and probably drinks. He is stagnant in life. He doesn't know what life is. He cannot say he is living. He is as a dead man, no love, no grief, no life. He knows not what life is.
