Meet the owner:
Maria has been creating art since her earliest memory with her grandmother. Upcycling has been her biggest passion and has had her upcycled circuit board jewelry displayed in various museums including the Smithsonian. This spring Maria's Fruit Bowls will be displayed in the Randall Museum in San Francisco. Come see them before they make their voyage north.

Come into Unit I studios , make a candle creating your own customized scent or have Maria teach you how to upcycle using Re-Design with Prima® craft materials.
