

Wingshooter Warmup – Terms, Conditions, and Liability Waiver

1. Acknowledgment of Risk

Participants acknowledge that shooting sports involve inherent risks including serious injury or death and voluntarily assume all risks associated with participation.

2. Safety Requirements

Participants agree that safety is their responsibility at all times and will follow all instructions from event staff and range personnel. Firearms must be handled safely, kept pointed in a safe direction, and not handled while anyone is downrange. Unsafe conduct may result in removal without refund.

3. Event-Specific Rules

Shot size is limited to #7.5 to #9. Participants must bring their own firearm and ammunition, ensure firearms are in safe working condition, and conduct all shooting in a controlled and deliberate manner. Semi-automatic users are encouraged to use shell catchers.

4. Protective Equipment

Eye and ear protection is strongly recommended for all participants and required for those under 18.

5. Conduct

No alcohol or drugs are permitted during shooting activities. Participants must act responsibly and may be removed for unsafe behavior.

6. First-Time Shooters

All skill levels are welcome. Assistance may be provided, but participants must follow all instructions and maintain safe conduct.

7. Compliance with Range Rules

Participants agree to follow all Collier Sportsmen's Association rules and acknowledge responsibility for every shot fired.

8. Release and Waiver

Participants release and waive any claims against Pennsylvania Game Hunters Alliance (PGHA), Collier Sportsmen's Association, and their representatives for any injury, loss, or damage arising from participation.

9. Indemnification

Participants agree to indemnify and hold harmless PGHA and Collier Sportsmen's Association from any claims, damages, or expenses resulting from their actions or failure to follow rules.

10. Medical Treatment

Participants consent to emergency medical treatment if necessary and accept responsibility for associated costs.

11. Media Release

Participants grant permission for photographs and video to be used for promotional purposes.

12. Event Policy

This is a rain or shine event. All registrations are final and non-refundable. Organizers may modify or suspend activities for safety without issuing refunds.

13. Agreement

By registering, participants confirm they have read and agree to these terms and conditions.
