Introduction

When we awaken to the inner existence of our souls, we find a new dimension, a new world composed of Edenic vibrations. As we receive those vibrations into our hearts and minds, they bring with them their Edenic peace, their Edenic love, and their Edenic wholeness (oneness) to the conditions of our lives.

The divine vibrations of the soul teach us that the soul alone is I. The heart, mind, and body falsely claim to be I. But when we accept the soul as the singular I, the troubles and burdens of the world disappear and Edenic Living[™] begins.

If you have not yet awakened to the inner (soul) dimension of your being, you can do so by reading about and performing the Soul Body Technique[™] in my book Particles from Heaven: Self-Realization. You can also awaken to your soul via the Edenic Prayer[™] presented on my website at www.EdenicLiving.com

It does not matter the method you use to awaken to your soul. Knowing how to find the inner dimension, however, is necessary to enter it. Once you can see and sense your soul, you know the direction you should go. That direction will lead you to inner (soul) unity, spiritual wholeness (oneness), and to the Land of the Soul.

Spiritual Solitude

Spiritual (Inner) oneness with the soul can be understood as spiritual aloneness, spiritual solitude, the singularity of the Edenic soul as I.

“I alone am; my soul alone exists (is).”

In spiritual oneness, the feeling of the heart and the awareness of the mind still function, but there is no separate I of the heart and mind. The heart and mind merge with and become the divine¹ faculties of the divine soul.

The activity of physical nature influences the separation of a person’s heart and mind from their soul to isolate a person in its darkness and sense of hopelessness.

Spiritual aloneness, on the other hand, is the unity of the heart and mind with the soul. The more spiritually alone you become in your divine soul, the greater you will know your soul’s Edenic body as “you.”

Your soul is the “presence of God,” also known as the “Christ,” or “God in you.”

1 Initially, it might be difficult for you to consider that you are divine. The word “divine” means of God. Our Heavenly (Soul) Universe is of God. You (soul, heart, mind, and aura) are a particle of Heaven, and therefore, you too, are of God. You will know this to be true in those moments when you experience inner oneness (spiritual union) with your soul.

Soul Affirmation™ :

Turn toward your soul and watch it. While you are watching your soul, slowly and thoughtfully repeat to yourself:

“I am my perfect soul body. I am perfect² life. I am eternal³ life. I am my perfect soul body.”

Between each recitation pause for a moment and try to become aware from your soul body.

As you relax into this process, you will begin to experience a fading of the sense of your physical body. Eventually all that will remain will be the heavenly vibrations of your soul body as you.

Ironically, the more spiritually alone you become, the greater will be the number of people that will come into your life. Everyone is looking for self-completion. Many people aren't quite sure what they are looking for, where it is or how to find it. They just know that something inside of them is missing.

What everyone is looking for, even if they don't know it yet, is their soul. When people see that you are of your soul, they will naturally gravitate to you, because you have the self-completeness, the fabled Edenic state of being that they hoped existed and had been longing for.

The nature of your life and the things in it are the vibratory effect of the nature of the energy that is you. We naturally vibrate with the nature of the energy that fills our hearts and minds. When we are of our physical bodies, physical energy/matter vibrates (influences) its dark nature in our hearts and 2 “Perfect” means pure; without sin.

3 “Eternal” means everlasting; without beginning or end.

minds. As we turn to and become of our souls, we become filled with its Edenic vibrations, instead.

God is Soul (Absolute Life). The perfect manifestations of our Macro Soul's holy nature and activity (currents and vibrations) as your soul is the Edenic Garden, God as.

"God is, God as" is a reminder of what is true about who and what you are as the divine child (individual soul) and the Edenic effects of self-realization (soul-realization) at every level of your being and as every aspect of your life.

Your heart, your mind, and your body all claim to be you. But when you know your soul alone as I, the many parts that claim to be you disappear. Where there were many, now there is one.

I is one. You are I. I is your soul. Your soul is the substance (absolute life energy) of our Edenic Garden (Heaven). Desire to know your divine soul alone as I. Become more and more alone in your soul, and you will know that you are the Garden of Eden (Heaven) on earth.

The spiritual purpose of suffering physical nature is to repel us toward inner oneness (spiritual union) with our souls. If you were to move your hand too close to a flame, the heat of the fire would cause you to pull your hand away. Likewise, any suffering you are experiencing at the physical level is telling you to pull away from the sensations of your physical body and move toward the Edenic sensations of your soul body.

It is easy to get lost in the question, "Why am I suffering?" But when we understand that the spiritual purpose of suffering is to remind us to return to our souls, and we turn and enter therein, we find that we are in our Edenic souls, where suffering does not exist.

Your soul is a gate (particle) of Heaven (our Soul Universe). The perfect light (life) of your soul will perfectly lead you out of physical darkness to its Edenic body. When you arrive at the gate of your soul, there will only be you, your soul, the divine child alone in God.
