What Makes Broad Run Crew Possible

- School-Sanctioned, Self-Funded
Recognized by LCPS and Broad Run, with funding provided through fees and fundraising.
- Nonprofit & Mission-Focused
Every dollar supports athletes, equipment, and regatta operations.
- Parent-Led, Team-Driven
Parent Board volunteers organize and support the program so coaches can focus on developing our rowers.
- Every Family Plays A Role
Whether volunteering at regattas, driving carpools, or supporting team activities, every family contributes.

Immediate Volunteer Needs

→ Uniform & Jacket Ordering

- Organizing and managing uniform & jacket orders (Jan-Mar)

→ Fundraising

- Fundraising is crucial to keep our fees from rising! Identify Corporate Sponsors or Team Fundraising opportunities

→ Trailer Driver(s) (vehicle optional)

- Trailer the team's boats and equipment to / from Regattas

Financial Commitment

- Winter Conditioning: $150
- Spring 2027 Season: $1,500 (broken into 2 payments)
 - $1,100 due Feb 2, 2027
 - $400* due March 6, 2027
 - *Athletes may offset this $400 payment via fundraising
 - BRC Board will provide some “fundraising” opportunities that can aid in offsetting the $400 payment, however, athletes are not limited to these options.
 - BRC Opportunities will include: RaiseRight and Erg-a-Thon Fundraiser
 - Athletes (and families) are encouraged to participate in any fundraising opportunities once registered
- Uniforms: $0 - new rowers only; ($90 if in need of a uniform replacement)

Possible Ways to Fundraise....

Fundraise simply by shopping or dining at places you love.

Simply purchase gift cards, shop online, or dine-out through your RaiseRight account and a percentage of your purchase will go towards BRC.

Friends & family can join in to help!

Over $1,600 raised in the last year!

ERG-A-THON

March 1, 2027 @ BRHS Cafeteria

More than a fundraiser. It's our season kickoff!

One day. One team. One challenge.

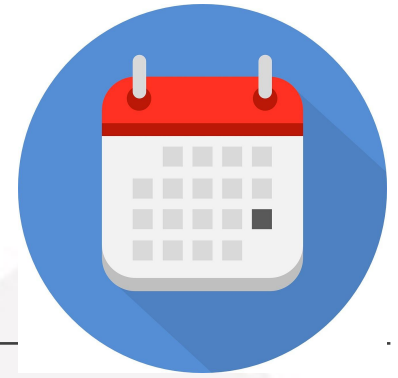

In past years, the team has rowed the
