Workshops

The theme for the workshops for the 2025 NJATMC convention will be Women's Mental Health and Wellness. While we are still working on the details of our workshops, we have secured a breakout space and intend to hold a session with a women's mental health professional, as well as a grounding yoga practice. The sessions will be staggered so everyone with interest can participate in both. Workshops will be tailored to suit women of all ages and activity levels. Stay tuned for more details!

A Deadly VINTAGE

Join us for a night at one of the most exclusive valley events at the Annual Vintage Release Party!

This year Chardonnay Crest Winery will host the event as a fundraiser, with the proceeds benefiting Cabernet Cellars, whose vineyards were recently destroyed by fire. As the winery owners and vintners of the valley clamor to show off their one-of-a-kind vintages to each other before releasing them to the public, Charlotte Chardonnay hopes the exclusive event will pay tribute to her late father, Charles, who always put community before profit.

While sniffing, swirling and sampling the visceral vintages, a scandalous act of murder will occur, leaving the party-goers in search of an uncorked killer!

Will the murderer be a vivacious vintner who was ill prepared to deal with defeat? The vineyard owner seeking revenge for their sour grapes Or possibly the bubbly champagne producer whose outgoing personality? is covering for something ?

It will be up to you to decant this crime before the culprit can claim another vineyard victim.
