High on Life: We will be holding our groups 33 year anniversary celebration on Sunday March 19th at 5:30pm.

Diversity is our Strength: is doing well, but is in need of newcomers and old timers willing to get into service!!

Let's Get Honest: is doing well. We want to thank the area for their support. Ricky R. is our new GSR

By NA Means Necessary: is doing well. We could use more home group members willing to serve.

Straight Up: is doing well. We could really use some new and experienced trusted servants to fill some positions in needed areas. We need a new ALT. GSR

New Beginnings: is in dire need of new members who are willing to get into service. We only have three members keeping the doors open and carrying the message. We thank the area for the support we are receiving.

Work the Steps or Die: Newcomers are always welcome to get into service.

Recovery First: is doing well but we can always use trusted servants who are willing to serve or would like to get into service.

Into the Light: Our Wednesday and Friday noon meetings are in desperate need of support! Thank you to all who do come out to support our Friday evening meeting. We can always use members willing to be of service.

No Matter What: We need home group members and support. Our business meeting is at 6pm the Wednesday before area.

Get Clean or Die Trying: We are doing well. Thank you for your support!

Wake up Living Clean: The Wake Up Living Clean Thursday meeting is doing well. We have come to a decision that February will be the last month that our Monday meeting will exist. Unless something changes drastically Monday, February 25th will be the last.
