Save the date! The South Danbury Church Fair is on Saturday, July 27, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., rain or shine. This year's special events are live music from 9:30 to 11 a.m. with Canyon Run's Lynda Nelson (who just had a recording session in Nashville) and Chicken Willie. And then at 11 a.m., Lynne Nelson, Frank Whittemore, and Mary Lyn Ray will share exciting news about "The Don and Jane Project," to honor the life and legacy of poets Donald Hall and Jane Kenyon, and to preserve their Eagle Pond Farm.

Auctioneer Doug Windsor will keep everyone laughing at the lively annual auction, after the midday lunch. And naturally there will be the traditional Church Fair features – the Bake Sale (baked beans, too), Homemade Ice Cream, Crafts, Yard Sale, Raffle, and more – and time to meet South Danbury businesses and learn about their wares. Plus, catch up with friends and neighbors after the rough winter, and, ahem ... "spring."

Anyone who needs a ride to attend worship or events can contact us by email or Facebook Messenger to make arrangements. We'll be happy to help. For more about the South Danbury Church and its activities, follow "Friends of the South Danbury Christian Church" on Facebook, email southdanburychurch@gmail.com, or call 603-491-3196.

Blazing Star Grange #71

Thanks!

The Grange always appreciates the support from friends in and around Danbury. In fact, we wouldn't exist without the support of a great community. We wanted to especially recognize the support shown for our recent chicken BBQ. 100 % of proceeds will go to supporting Danbury's American Legion as they reorganize and work to bring their building back to good shape. Stop by at the Country Store to buy a few Legion raffle tickets if you haven't done so yet. A few dollars will really help them out.

Friendly Forum

Geese help each other. They take turns with leadership & help when others are sick or injured. Elders can be isolated, which is a huge loss for them & their communities. Like geese, we can share our experience & skill, to assist others.

Achieving genuine happiness may require bringing about a transformation in your outlook, and your way of thinking.

This is not a simple matter.

The 14th Dalai Lama

Please join us for Friendly Forum on Friday, July 5th at 10:15.

We will be car pooling to the very beautiful Tarbin Gardens. Please meet us at 10:00 in the upper parking lot at the Community Center. Call 768-3620 to RSVP so that we can make sure to have enough cars. Tell us whether you are a rider or a driver.

You are also welcome at card parties and bone builders. Please see the calendar for dates and times.

George Gamble Library

Library News July 2019

The April issue of the NH Magazine included an article, “Ticked Off”, which provides useful information about deer ticks and Lyme disease, as well as conversations with people who, having struggled with the disease, “are using their talents to make a difference”. New in our cookbook collection is one written by Laura and Mary Piazza entitled “RECIPES FOR REPAIR, A 10-Week Program to Combat Chronic Inflammation and Identify Food Sensitivities”. Laura suffers from chronic Lyme disease and has found relief from most of her symptoms by following the dietary advice of Dr. Kenneth Singleton who wrote the “The Lyme Disease Solution”. The recipes were created to be family friendly and appealing to anyone. “No one needs to know that you’re on a special diet,” Laura says. “It’s just dinner.”

Dana Biscotti Myskowski’s book “I CANNOT PLAY WITH YOU” is also now in the library. This Henniker resident has lived with Lyme disease symptoms since 2005. Wanting to raise awareness of the range of side effects and symptoms, and of what people who have the disease are going through, she discovered that there are already many self-help books about Lyme disease, so wrote a murder mystery instead. The main character investigates a murder while also trying to manage symptoms of chronic Lyme. With this first novel the author hopes to entertain as well as educate.

This summer’s annual CHILDREN’S BOATING REGATTA is scheduled for Saturday, July 27th from 10 to 11:30am at the library. Participants will make and race paddle boats with their sailing mentor Tom Brewer. Adults are welcome to join the fun.

The Friends of the George Gamble Library continue to meet on the second Thursday of each month at 7pm in the Community Center. The big event of the summer is the library’s annual BOOK SALE, held during the town wide yard sale across the street from the library, this year on Saturday, Aug 3rd. The book sale will continue all day and into Sunday. Even if you can’t commit to monthly meetings, your time and effort volunteering for some activities (moving around boxes of books?) would certainly be appreciated. The group is strong in commitment and enthusiasm, though not great in number, so all extra hands are welcomed.
