TWO CHORD SONGS - HOW TO USE THIS BOOK.

People starting to play the uke will often want to start with the simplest of songs ie. those that do not require many chords. There are lots of well known songs that only require two chords and there is a list on the following page but the chords are written in three different keys F, C, and G, for just seven songs.

Deep in the Heart of Texas
Achy Breaky Heart,
Jambalaya,
Singing in the Rain,
Iko Iko,
Dance the Night Away,
Down in the Valley.

The aim is

1. To be able to change chords effortlessly.
2. To extend chord vocabulary by degrees.

To achieve this you

1. could work your way through all the songs in F then move to the songs in C then finally to those in G

OR

2. could play one song in F then try the same song in C and finally in G then move on to the next song.

AT THE END OF THIS BOOK YOU SHOULD KNOW THE FOLLOWING CHORDS

F C7 C G7 G D7

With the addition of Bb and A Minor you will be able to tackle many three and four chord songs.

TWO CHORD SONGS

All these songs have only TWO chords in them.

If played in the key of C you will need to know C and G7.

If played in the key of G you will need to know G and D7.

If played in the key of F you will need to know F and C7

Once mastered in one key (I suggest you start with F) then try and play them in C and then G.

If you know the lyrics of any of these songs then write them out and then attach the chords.

The Golden Rule of two chord songs is – If the chord sounds wrong as you sing the tune then it is the other one.

Achy Breaky Heart – Billy Ray Cyrus

in F

[F]You can tell the world you never was my girl
You can burn my clothes up when I'm [C7]gone
Or you can tell your friends just what a fool I've been
And laugh and joke about me on the [F]phone

[F]You can tell my arms go back to the farm
You can tell my feet to hit the [C7]floor
Or you can tell my lips to tell my fingertips
They won't be reaching out for you no [F]more

But [F]don't tell my heart, my achy breaky heart
I just don't think he'd under[C7]stand
And if you tell my heart, my achy breaky heart
He might blow up and kill this [F]man

[F]You can tell your ma I moved to Arkansas
Or you can tell your dog to bite my [C7]leg
Or tell your brother Cliff who's fist can tell my lips
He never really liked me any[F]way

Or [F]tell your Aunt Louise, tell anything you please
Myself already knows I'm not o[C7]kay
Or you can tell my eyes to watch out for my mind
It might be walking out on me one [F]day

But [F]don't tell my heart, my achy breaky heart
I just don't think he'd under[C7]stand
And if you tell my heart, my achy breaky heart
He might blow up and kill this [F]man

[F]Don't tell my heart, my achy breaky heart
I just don't think he'd under[C7]stand
And if you tell my heart, my achy breaky heart
He might blow up and kill this [F]man

SINGING IN THE RAIN (Key of G)

G
I'm singing in the rain
Just singing in the rain

Gmaj

D7

What a glorious feeling
D7
I'm happy again

I'm laughing at clouds

So dark up above

'Cause the sun's in my heart

G
And I'm ready for love

Let the stormy clouds chase

Everyone from the place

Come on with the rain

D7
I've a smile on my face

I'll walk down the lane

With a happy refrain

'Cause I'm singing

G
Just singing in the rain.

DOWN IN THE VALLEY (Key of G)

This song is in 3/4 timing so count “One – two – three, One – two – three” etc

G D7
Down in the valley, Valley so low
G
Hang you head over, hear the wind blow.
D7
Hear the wind blow dear. hear the wind blow.
G
Late in the evening hear the wind blow.

G D7
Roses love sunshine , violets love dew.
G
Angels in heaven know I love you
D7
Know I love you dear, know I love you
G
Angels in heaven know I love you

Repeat first verse.
