

Books in the CONNECT Framework® Series COMING SOON!

The CONNECT Framework®

A relationship-based approach that reminds us: connection supports regulation, and connection supports communication.

Practical. Relationship-based. Neuroaffirming.

Two essential guides from Susannah Burden to help parents and professionals apply the CONNECT Framework® in everyday life.

BOOK 2

CONNECT First: Parenting

A practical guide for parents and caregivers.

Understand your child's regulation and communication needs.

Use everyday strategies that build connection and trust.

Support your child to thrive at home, at school, and in life.

WHO IT'S FOR

Parents, caregivers, and families of children with communication differences, neurodivergence, anxiety, or developmental delay.

BOOK 3

CONNECT First: Coaching

A practical guide for professionals and teams.

Apply the CONNECT Framework® across settings and professions.

Use evidence-informed strategies that support regulation and communication.

Build consistent, collaborative approaches that make a difference.

WHO IT'S FOR

Speech and language therapists, educators, allied health professionals, coaches, and anyone supporting children and young people.

Both books will help you:

Strengthen connection as the foundation for communication.

Understand regulation and how it impacts communication.

Use practical strategies that fit real life and real relationships.

Support children and young people to feel safe, seen, and heard.

Empower confidence, collaboration, and positive change.

About the Author

Susannah Burden

BSc (Hons), PgDip AVT, LSLC Cert AVT
Specialist Speech & Language Therapist &
Auditory Verbal Therapist

Author of:

CONNECT First: Helping Children and Young People Thrive Through Real-Life Communication

Be the First to Know!

Sign up for updates and be notified when CONNECT First: Parenting (Book 2) and CONNECT First: Coaching (Book 3) are available.

Learn more at www.connectcommunicationtherapy.com

Where to Find the Books

Available soon at Amazon, Waterstones, Barnes & Noble, and your local bookstore.

