STUDENT PREREQUISITES

Students registering for the course must be at least twenty-one years of age or turn twenty-one prior to its end. In addition, students must be able to write, read and speak the English language. Individuals completing the course and passing the practical exam prior to the 23rd birthday will be issued a Letter of Aeronautical Competency in lieu of a temporary certificate by the local Flight Standard District Office.

STUDENT ATTENDANCE

Students are required to attend the minimum curriculum hours to be eligible for a course completion diploma and an endorsement to apply for the FAA Practical examination by a Designated Aircraft Dispatch Examiner (DADE).

If for reasons beyond the student's control, one or two modules are missed, the classes can be made up later or via alternative methods. This may include but not be limited to guided self-study, assignments, or "one-on-one" instruction (additional fees may apply). Students missing more than two modules will be required to make up all missed modules beyond the first two.

COMPLETION REQUIREMENTS

You will be required to attend 200 hours of curriculum, a passing grade on the FAA ADX written examination, and a passing grade (70%) on the GATA final exam. If you receive a score between 70% and 85% on the GATA final exam, then you will be required to conduct a mock oral exam with an authorized instructor. The passing score will allow the receipt of the 90-day endorsement to apply for the FAA Practical examination.

ADDITIONAL GROUND SCHOOL

A student that has registered for an Aircraft Dispatch Certification full course (Not applicable for reduced attendance), may attend any scheduled module (within 12-months of the enrollment date), other than the one he/she has registered for. However, a different student must be currently enrolled and attending the scheduled module. No expense will be invoiced to the student to attend. The privilege will provide the opportunity to retake a module that the student needs to review required for academic proficiency. It can also allow a student to "make-up" a class that was previously missed.

Class attendance on will expire on: _____

If the student requires additional "one-on-one" ground school, from an authorized GATA instructor, an hourly fee of $60.00 USD per hour may be applied.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

A $250.00 USD fee will apply if a student is requesting an I-20 application to apply for an M-1 Visa. Receipt of full tuition and registration, for the selected curriculum, will be required prior to the issuance of an I-20 or visa invitation letter. If the applicable visa is rejected a full refund will be provided.
