

Michigan Association of Veterinary Technicians Annual Fall Conference

October 22, 2022: Blue Water Convention Center, Port Huron, MI

	Track 1	Track 2	Track 3
Time	Exotics Companion Animal Medicine Presented By: Sarah Kolb, BAS, RVT, LAT, VTS(Exotic Companion Animals)	Medical Challenges in General Practice Presented By: Tami Lind, BS, RVT, VTS(ECC) Emergency and Critical Care	Track 3-Wellness for the Veterinary Team Presented By: Karlene Beylea, MBA
7:30-8:30 AM	Registration & Breakfast
8:30-9:20 AM	Clinical Techniques & Practical Tips for Exotic Animals	What did he eat?! Common Toxicities and Treatments	Wag More Bark Less: Communications Tips for Working with All Behavioral Styles
9:20-9:30 AM	Break
9:30-10:20 AM	Exotic Animal Triage & Common Appointment Presentations	Neonatal Critical Care	Body Language for Building Rapport and Influence
10:20-10:30 AM	Break
10:30-11:20 AM	Emergency & Critical Care of Exotic Animals	Technician to Manager- A Difficult Transition	Communication Tips for Creating a Positive and Harmonious Team
11:20 AM-1:00 PM	Lunch & MAVT Presentation
1:00-1:50 PM	Husbandry & Nutrition for Rabbits, Chinchillas, Guinea Pigs, & Rodents	Critical Care Thinking/ Scenarios	How to Improve Your Wellbeing and Be Happier at Work
1:50-2:00 PM	Break
2:00-2:50 PM	Exotic Animals Anesthesia Concepts	Anaphylaxis-Physiology and Treatment	How to Embrace Your Inner Sloth: Techniques to Make Life Better
2:50-3:10 PM	Break and Snack
3:10-4:00 PM	Monitoring Vital Signs in Exotic Animals	Blocked Cats-Causes, Physiology and Treatment	Brain Training and Neuroscience: Out With the Negative Mojo

