

Shafee Azi, Producer

Shafee is an unconventionally fun and professional filmmaker based in Vancouver BC. He possesses a wide knowledge in film and professional photography that combined with his unique and singular way of contemplation will provide anyone excellent results in whichever professional venture he pursues. In regards to his history on camera operation, he has definitely experimented with several types, all from classic abstract and artistic styles to more corporate and modern commercial products and mediums. But his most notable aspect in his experiential training over time would involve his adaptability and willingness to want to achieve more in his career as well as all the other odd jobs he picks up along the way. He is definitely a riot to have on the team.

