

Lauren Wong, Lead Animator

Lauren Wong, is a 3D Animator who recently graduated from the 3D Animation program at Capilano University, and currently studies in the Creative Writer program at Kwantlen Polytechnic University. Lauren believes that to be in a team you have to have good communication. Lauren leads by example by accepting feedback and criticism, with the intention to improve and grow. This is Lauren's first ever short film collaboration, she is grateful for the opportunity and plans to continue to pursue animation as a career.

Nicholas Gutwin, Lead Composer

The composer for this film is Nicholas Gutwin. He believes in staying flexible. Being able to change things about shots quickly is always a priority. Nicholas spent two years in Capilano University's Visual Effects program. He has primarily done projects for the university working along side the other film programs. Nicholas loves making each scene special and look better than the last.

