PRAYER OF THE DAY from Presbyterian Church, 1956

Merciful Father, we come to thee confessing the sins of our civilization, in which we all have shared. We have been so bent upon our selfish ends that we would not stop to have mercy. When we have seen those whom the injustices of the world have bruised and beaten, we have passed by on the other side. We have built around ourselves the walls of privilege, within which we might not hear the passion of the exploited men, the weeping of women, the bitter cry of children robbed of happy youth. O God of truth, make us understand. O God of judgement, wake us to repentance. O God of mercy, make us fit to ask for thy forgiveness, before it is too late. AMEN!

OPTIONAL –COMMUNION SERVICE (You can pick up the fellowship cup at the church, 10-11am.)

To end this time of worship, say this blessing out loud together – Colossians 3:15

Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful.
