Manifest the Love Life you want

This is a powerful ceremonial process to transform your love life.

What kind of relationship do you want? Do you want love, joy, trust?

Would you like a supportive relationship with good communication and understanding?

In this workshop Helen combines Native American, Hawaiian, Celtic and modern therapeutic techniques into two powerful ceremonies. The key to this whole process is to change your vibration.

Become clear about what you want. Heal the past and manifest relationship success.

Part 1: Cutaway Ceremony

Let go of what no longer serves you. Remove blocks and limiting belief systems. Say goodbye to past hurts. Make space for happiness now and in the future.
