Fieldenders staying home, staying safe

At times like this, our lovely community really comes into its own. Thank you to all of the Fieldend residents who are working together to observe social distancing, applauding our NHS and other key workers on Thursday evenings, keeping the smallest residents cheerful with bright window displays and helping people who are 'shielding' or 'self-isolating' with grocery shopping and other essentials. Please do remember to keep an appropriate distance when you're out for a stroll.

Spring blooms
Thanks to everyone who turned out for our most recent tidy day on March 7th. The gardens are looking absolutely beautiful and we're grateful to Sally and to Allen's team for their hard work. During the warm weather, please keep an eye on the plants and trees near your home and water them if needed. Thanks!

POSTPONEMENTS

Sadly, we've had no choice but to postpone the Fieldend summer party until the situation is clearer - we will keep this under review.

Mark, who was scheduled to begin our repainting programme in March, is being kept in Poland by travel restrictions. We hope this work can go ahead later in the year.

GARAGE GUTTERS

Fortunately, not everything has ground to a halt - new guttering is being installed on the garage blocks this week.

Electric vehicles
The directors are looking into the potential installation of charging points for electric vehicles. If you have any relevant knowhow, do get in touch.

Our new neigh-bour!

Fieldend recently had an unusual but very welcome visitor - Annie's Whizz, a 15yo Welsh mountain pony from Park Lane Stables. While exercising their animals, Natalie and her team at the stables are taking the opportunity to visit local streets and cheer up residents. You can follow their progress online using the hashtag #tinyponyatyourwindow. Park Lane Stables do great work with Riding for the Disabled and are appealing for sponsorship of their ponies while they are closed. See www.parklanestables.co.uk for details.

Useful delivery services

There are a number of smaller food and drink delivery services that might be useful while supermarket deliveries are hard to obtain. Beelivery (www.beelivery.com) delivers small quantities of everyday groceries, and the Co-op on Kingston Road is on www.deliveroo.co.uk. Rubens Bakery and Kingston Market Fishmongers will deliver larger orders if neighbours want to club together. The Good Wine Shop (thegoodwineshop.co.uk) is delivering life's liquid essentials, and La Dolce Vita on Waldegrave Road is now on www.deliveroo.co.uk and www.just-eat.co.uk. For special occasions, Le Salon Prive in St Margarets is taking meal delivery orders between 11am and 9pm on 0208 892 0602.
