

NABBS, INC.
National Association of Bench and Bar Spouses, Incorporated

As we prepare for our 75th Anniversary Convention in Nashville this July, NABBS is creating a special 75th Anniversary Commemorative Journal celebrating the history, legacy, and impact of the National Association of Bench and Bar Spouses.

This commemorative publication will serve as a keepsake reflecting our organization, our members, and the meaningful connections and memories built throughout the years. We invite all members and chapters to participate in helping us create something truly special for this milestone anniversary celebration.

Call for Submissions

We welcome submissions that help capture the spirit and history of NABBS, including:

- Photos from past conventions or NABBS events
- Historical documents, programs, or memorabilia
- Chapter photos or highlights
- Personal reflections or memories

Advertisement & Tribute Opportunities

Members and supporters are invited to participate through advertisements or tribute pages.

Ad Pricing:

- Full Page – $250
- Half Page – $125
- Quarter Page – $50

We welcome:

- Members with businesses or professional practices
- Law firms and organizations
- Congratulatory messages
- In memoriam tribute pages honoring loved ones or past members

Chapter Participation

Each chapter is asked to submit a full-page chapter profile highlighting its leadership, activities, photos, and members.

Submission Deadline

To ensure consideration for inclusion, please submit all materials, advertisements, and payments no later than:

June 20, 2026

Due to production and printing timelines, we may not be able to accommodate late submissions.
